

Roe, Charles A.

Charles A. Roe, 68, of Caseville, died suddenly at his home Sunday, May 14, 2006. Charles was born April 23, 1938 in Fort Wayne, Indiana to the late Rolla and Beulah Roe. He graduated from Purdue University with a Bachelor of Arts in engineering. Throughout his career, he has worked at the Newport News shipyard in Virginia, Lipe Rollway in Syracuse, New York, and U.S. Manufacturing in Bad Axe and Detroit. In 1994, he bought what is now Todd's Snack Pak, 6389 State Street in Caseville, and has lived there since then. A member of the Fort Wayne Eagles, he enjoyed coin collecting, running his family business and visiting with customers. Charles is survived by his son, Anthony; and his daughter, Mistie, both of Caseville. He was preceded in death by his wife, Judith, on September 10, 2003; sister, Beverly; and brothers, Dwight and Dorl. A private committal service will be conducted at Covington Memorial Gardens in Fort Wayne, Indiana at a future date. Funeral arrangements are being handled by Champagne Funeral Chapel of Caseville. Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society. Condolences may be shared online at www.cfcCaseville.com.
