Leadership Guide

(Officers and Committee Chairs)

Cindy Casaus
President
2021

Preface

The information contained herein is for 2021. Subsequent use will require the manual be updated in entirety. This is an informational document of general practices, guidelines and forms currently in use; as well as serving to supplement the Bylaws which intentionally tend to be lacking in specifics for certain job descriptions. This manual does not replace any of the AzFRW's published documents or policies but rather offers a helpful explanation or starting point to assist new local and state leaders to be successful with the goal of professional, well run organizations on all levels. Thank you for all you do!

Club Presidents are voting members of the AzFRW Board of Directors and should review the Board of Directors Section*

Understanding Our “Tri-Level” Organization : Clubs, AzFRW and NFRW

Club members remit annual dues to their Club. Of the dues amount received, Clubs then send $24 for each Active member on to AzFRW. AzFRW retains only $4 per member, forwarding $20 per member to the NFRW. Every Republican Woman who joins a local “Federated” club automatically joins AzFRW and NFRW. Clubs also remit a nominal annual “Service Charge” on top of dues. The NFRW Annual Service Charge fee is $15 per Club and AzFRW annual is $10 per Club. Club Service Charges fees are due with the First Report in January each year.

The AzFRW State President serves as Arizona’s member to the NFRW Board of Directors and attends the NFRW meetings during her term. NFRW holds two meetings in even years and one in the odd year which is usually combined with a Legislative Day at the U.S. Capitol. Conventions for both NFRW and AzFRW occur every two years and are held in the fall of odd years. Conventions are more extensive than regular meetings and legal business such as elections and bylaws amendments are handled by the voting body which is established through the Delegate credentials process.

For the NFRW biennial convention, the State President and one Delegate per club (usually the Club President but not necessarily) have voting status. Other Arizona members serving NFRW in various official capacities may also have voting status. In addition, each state sends their elected Delegates-at-Large and Alternates-at-Large to the NFRW Convention, the number for which is determined by the state membership totals as of the third quarter (Q3) of the convention year. For either State or National Convention, credentials requirements must be met to preserve voting status.

AzFRW State Meetings are held three times in even years and twice in odd years with the third meeting of the odd year being the biennial AzFRW Convention. For State Meetings only, Club Presidents may send a proxy (with duly executed proxy form) to represent their club if they cannot attend. Club Presidents should do their best to attend all meetings or make sure their club is represented.

For State and National Conventions, proxies are not permitted. Properly credentialed Alternates may substitute in the event of an emergency. For the AzFRW State Convention, Clubs are entitled to representation by means of their voting Delegates and Alternates in addition to their President or her Alternate and the number is based upon Q3 membership numbers. Refer to appropriate Bylaws for more details on AzFRW Delegates and Alternates or NFRW Delegates-at-Large and Alternates-at-Large. Please be aware that whether it is for AzFRW State Convention or NFRW Convention, all who have voting privileges must comply with the credentialing and registration requirements to preserve their voting rights!

Each organization is governed by their documents which include their Bylaws, Standing Rules and other Policies or Procedures.

All officers must comply with these documents and follow them to the letter.

In the case of NFRW and AzFRW, Bylaws may only be amended at Conventions every two years by the voting body.

AzFRW members may propose amendments to NFRW Bylaws or the AzFRW Bylaws by following the guidelines for submitting on the respective websites.

Each new term, NFRW reviews the AzFRW Bylaws for compliance and advises of any necessary or recommended changes.

Each term, AzFRW reviews all the local Club Bylaws for compliance and advises of any necessary or recommended changes.

All Club Bylaws and Objects shall be consistent with those of the NFRW. (AzFRW Bylaws, Article III, Section 2, Item B-3) They also may not conflict with NFRW.

As a leader, when a question or issue arises, your first response should be:
“What do the Bylaws say?”

If the local Club Bylaws are not clear, refer to Roberts Rules of Order (most current) for additional information.

Our State Parliamentarian, your Region Director or other State Officers are always available to assist when Clubs run into issues.

Remember, club bylaws, standing rules or policies may not be in conflict with AzFRW or NFRW and must be lawful.

If you find discrepancies or errors in your Club Bylaws or other documents, determine the proper manner to remedy or update your documents.

Bylaws are intentionally not very specific. They are the frame of your structure and only changed with difficulty. Standing Rules, or other policies, comprise the décor of your structure and are far more easily changed. When amending Bylaws, try to avoid extensive specifics, for you will be anchored to them.

Bylaws MUST be respected and followed!

AzFRW Executive Committee & General Leadership Guidelines

Understanding the AzFRW Board of Directors and Executive Committee

- The Board of Directors is the governing body for the AzFRW. Each member of the Board of Directors shall be an Active club member in good standing. Voting Board members are the Executive Committee, the Appointed Officers, Arizona's National Committeewoman, the Past Presidents of AzFRW, AzFRW Club Presidents, AzFRW Standing Committee Chairs and any members serving as NFRW Officers, Chairs or Committee Members. State Meetings are Board of Directors meetings and are open to all active members to attend.
- The AzFRW Board of Directors is quite large and the Executive Committee serves as a smaller guiding force on behalf of the AzFRW Board of Directors. The Executive Committee makes recommendations to the Board for their approval and/or action. Examples would include the Budget, Standing Rules or other document updates, etc.
- The voting members of the Executive Committee is comprised of 14 elected officers who are the AzFRW President, 1st, 2nd and 3rd Vice Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, the eight Region Directors and Immediate Past President. The Parliamentarian also attends all Executive Committee Meetings. Other officers or guests may sometimes be invited to attend or be present, but do not have voting privileges.
- The decision power of the Executive Committee is limited by the bylaws. The guiding vision of the President and the members of the Executive Committee is intended to create a spirit that will positively energize the organization.
- Executive Committee members should realize that they are at all times setting an example in their demeanor, attire and message.
- Discussions in Executive Committee are sometimes sensitive, always considered confidential and never discussed with anyone outside of the Executive Committee. Executive Committee Minutes are also confidential and are distributed only to Executive Committee members.
- Parliamentary procedures shall be followed for all AzFRW meetings.

In addition to such other duties or responsibilities as may be requested by the President, or as defined in such other documents as Bylaws, Standing Rules or Financial Policies, the Executive Committee shall:

- Read and become familiar with all published AzFRW documents including Bylaws, Standing Rules or other Policies. Bylaws, Standing Rules and Policies should always be carried by all Executive Committee members.

- Per the AzFRW Bylaws (Article V, Section 2, Item A-1) the President is the official representative of the Federation. Accordingly, all communications, plans or events shall be pre-approved by the President prior to implementation. Per our Standing Rules, “No sale of materials shall be made, and no materials may be distributed at AzFRW Meetings or events without prior approval of the AzFRW President.” Adopted February 10, 2018.
- Submit any expense reimbursements or mileage reimbursements within 60 days. Other than mileage, receipts are to be provided for all expense requests per AzFRW reimbursement policies. Expenses submitted later than 60 days will not be reimbursed.
- Submit newsletter articles, State Meeting or other documents, Convention Reports or any other such items requested in a timely manner and by the deadline dates as published or requested.
- Executive Committee members are expected to attend all Executive Committee meetings. If unable to attend, they should submit their request to be excused by contacting the President with a copy to the Secretary.
- Unless officially excused, State Officers and all Committee Chairs are expected to attend all State Meeting events. This is as a professional courtesy to our guest speakers, to our 1st Vice President for her hard work in arranging quality programs and to properly represent the Federation with the presence of duly elected officers in a formal gathering of members, guests or elected officials.
- AzFRW is a 527 Political Organization. We are a non-profit, but we are not tax exempt. According to NFRW, all Clubs are also 527 Political Organizations.
- All in-state travel for AzFRW Officers, other than the President, shall be pre-approved by the President prior to officers accepting speaking requests or scheduling any visits. This is accomplished by use of the Speaker Request Form.
- It is our job as the Arizona Federation of Republican Women to educate, encourage, motivate, mentor and inspire our leaders and members on the local level statewide.

AzFRW President's Responsibilities

Per the AzFRW Bylaws (Article V, Section 2) many of the President's duties are clearly defined including the fact that she is the official representative of the Federation. Therefore, all communications, or miscommunications, are her responsibility. All communications flow to the President for approval prior to distribution. In addition to the responsibilities defined in the bylaws, President is also responsible for:

Generating the Master Calendar for the coming two years:

- This is a top priority and should be done as quickly as possible as everyone is waiting for dates to be provided so they may schedule their club events.
- Once dates are set and/or simultaneously, firm up meeting locations with venues.
- Additionally, to be determined by no later than the summer meeting of the odd year, is the location for the first meeting of the new term. (This is relevant as the major metropolitan areas are in peak "tourist season". Room rates become very expensive and hotels are booked up if location is not secured well in advance). She shall then schedule Region Directors to serve as "hosting regions" for State Meetings.
- President shall make Committee Appointments prior to the February State Meeting.
- Shall prepare Program of Action per the AzFRW Bylaws for the February State Meeting.
- President shall review Standing Rules and all policies and procedures for updating as necessary at the February Winter Meeting.
- Work with editor to establish calendar deadline dates, calls for reports etc.
- Work with the newsletter editor to publish and distribute the Winter Newsletter announcing the February meeting in a timely manner. (Generally, early registration discount expires 2 weeks after the posting/publication date. Hotel rooms block and other registration dates are driven by the hotel and/or Arrangements Chair).

Determining the AzFRW Convention dates:

- Once the Convention Chair has been appointed, ascertain the next Convention location which should be resolved by no later than the summer meeting of the even year and requires the Board's approval.
- Follow up with Convention Chair to ensure that reports and updates as well as recommendations of previous committees have been evaluated and/or incorporated.
- All AzFRW dates revolve around NFRW dates to avoid conflicts. Once the NFRW dates are known, and the AzFRW Convention dates are selected, you will then need to use an online day counter to calculate the days from the Convention Opening Session date to establish such requirements as Bylaws report, Nominating Committee report, and publishing deadline for Call to Convention etc.
- It is generally recommended to schedule the Summer Meeting in Conventions year to be held in May before members scatter for the summer and many clubs go dark. It is important to provide a coaching session to guide club presidents through the awards processes for both state and national. It is also critical to review the credentials requirements for both conventions as well as accomplishing the election of Arizona's NFRW Delegates-at-Large and Alternates-at-Large prior the NFRW Credentials deadlines. (Refer to the AzFRW Bylaws, Article X and XI).

- Once calendar dates are established, work with Arrangements Chair and Newsletter Editor to set and publish deadlines. Advise Webmaster so she may update website.

Working through the State & National Awards Process:

- In conjunction with 1st Vice President and the Awards Chair, the AzFRW leadership team shall set the course for the content of the meetings, speakers and workshops. Jointly, they shall endeavor to meet required guidelines for the NFRW Heitman Award to maintain Arizona's history of top tier recognition as well as to motivate and educate our members.
- State Achievement Award Chair should revise and update as needed the AzFRW Awards forms during the first year and have them ready for presentation at the Winter Meeting of the odd (Convention) year. (Historically, changes after that date confused the clubs who did not go to the website for the most recent updates).
- Consider an Awards Workshop as part of the convention year Winter State Meeting so that all clubs may be mentored to properly complete both state and national awards forms. The goal is lots of awards, not frustrated club presidents.

Working through the Banking and Finances: (also, see Treasurer's Section, Page 39-41)

- President shall ensure that checkbooks and other records are delivered to the Financial Review Chair timely to accomplish required financial reviews prior to the first meeting each year. (AzFRW Bylaws, Article X, Section 3, Item E-2)
- Online access codes for QuickBooks Online shall be changed to any new officers.
- AzFRW incoming and outgoing Presidents will meet with Treasurer as necessary to accomplish signature changes at the bank no later than the first week in January, preferably in December. Chase Bank will need a copy of the Convention Minutes reflecting the election of the new officers. Also, be sure former signatories are removed.
- President shall work with the Budget Committee (see Budget Committee) to complete the proposed budget for the first meeting. (AzFRW Bylaws, Article IX, Section 3, Item D)

Timely delivery of the new officers NFRW reports and paperwork:

- President shall ensure that the new AzFRW Officers Report is submitted to NFRW in a timely manner which is on or before January 1st. (The Secretary will update and send out a "Club Officers Update" form to all clubs in November with follow ups as needed in December. All Clubs should report their new officers as soon as possible)
- AzFRW members with NFRW master database access are the President & Treasurer.
- It is important that the Q1 membership upload to NFRW be accomplished timely. NFRW Board and Committee Members not reported by the NFRW Winter meeting in March would not be in good standing. Accordingly, they would not be published in the NFRW directory and/or their voting rights, if any, might be affected.
- Additionally, the membership upload tends to find errors in the form of duplicates or associates which affect the accuracy of the dues remittances and membership counts.

Transitioning the committees:

- Traditionally, there has been a joint transition meeting immediately after convention, but it seems to be a time when everyone is in a hurry to hit the road. Process TBD by the incoming President-Elect.

- Incoming President needs to appoint Chairs and define her goals with them. It's difficult to transition a new team the same day you are elected, let alone have all the decisions and appointments made, which are technically not approved until the first State Meeting and it is partly why this General Instructions Guide was created. Outgoing Chairs should turn over all materials as well as a summary report with their recommendations.
- Consider scheduling sufficient time for all committees to meet during the first Winter State Meeting of a new term.
- Additionally, the President should try to diversify appointments endeavoring to utilize members from various parts of the state which will hopefully create more involvement as well as more effective communications.

Once the Presidents signatures are changed, the Treasurer will also need to be added or deleted as appropriate. It may be the same day or involve more than one trip to a branch that is convenient.

Membership Dues Credits:

- Sometimes dues are overpaid as members inadvertently join two clubs and are converted to Associate status in one or the other. - If NFRW has been overpaid for membership dues, a refund check shall be requested.
- If pending NFRW report is due and prior credit has not been issued, the credit amount shall be deducted from the pending report to NFRW.

The Region Director should be the “go to” resource for Club officers for all their issues and questions, researching as needed to obtain answers when necessary.
- Ask the question, “What do your Club bylaws say?” If their club bylaws are silent, then Roberts Rules (most current) will prevail. All club actions must be lawful.
- Review the Awards forms with clubs to maximize points in their programs planning. Encourage your clubs to invite the AzFRW Officers to attend and/or to speak. AzFRW Officers are not expected to automatically attend club meetings or events. It is considered proper protocol for the club to extend an invitation to a state officer. Please utilize the Speaker Request form when Officers will be part of your Program.

- Each year, we have many Clubs with brand new officers, some of whom were not even club members a year ago. Most have no concept about our tri-level organizational structure. It is the job of the Region Director and our State Meetings to welcome, train, assist and mentor our club leaders. Always remember, we start fresh each year. To some, mentioning an item may be a reminder, but to others it will provide welcome guidance. Region Directors should communicate with all Club presidents in her region at least once per quarter in addition to frequent visits to Clubs and emails.
- Obtain a copy of each of her region Clubs current Bylaws, Standing Rules and/or other rules or policies for notebook. - Region Directors are responsible for generating a Region Report for each newsletter per deadlines requested by the President. Photo reports and/or bullet points are far more interesting than line after line lengthy paragraphs. Be sure to add names/captions to any photographs as well as the event being shared or planned. The goal is an interesting and visual report showing Republican Women being involved and making a difference in their communities across Arizona. Late reports will be shown as "report not submitted".
- Assist as Hosting Region(s) for one State Meeting during the term. The 3rd VP and Arrangements Chair will coordinate with the Region Director(s) as to Silent Auction or Drawing donation needs, volunteer needs etc. Region Directors should let their Clubs know they will need help in all areas. Region Director(s), 3rd Vice President and Arrangements Chair should work as a team for the State Meeting to coordinate volunteers, activities, tables needed etc.
- By no later than the AzFRW Winter Meeting of the even year, Region Directors shall have contacted their Clubs, introduced themselves and begun tentative arrangements for a Regional Meeting or event in the coming two years as well as obtaining a copy of all club documents. Region Meetings or events should preferably be scheduled during the even year or early in the odd year due to conventions. AzFRW President to be informed of all region meetings or event dates as soon as possible to avoid conflicts and so she may try to attend. Joint Regional Events are encouraged!
- AzFRW will reserve time at the Winter Meeting prior to Awards deadlines to coach and mentor Club Presidents as needed so forms are properly completed and submitted to maximize awards for their clubs and AzFRW. Region Directors should plan to attend this meeting and should contact the Awards Chair with any questions earlier if necessary.

- Region Directors shall review forms and other procedures with their clubs incoming leadership each year and generate an annual checklist of items that may be shared with future Region Directors to help new club officers get a good start. Such items to be covered might include:
 - Proxy Forms (and importance of attending state meetings)
 - Voucher Form & Membership Report (Treasurer sends updated each time)
 - About AzFRW Quarters (for the current year)
 - Club Update Form (Secretary sends out. Due every fall as soon as known!)
 - Assisting with program recommendations to optimize club awards
 - Protocol, meeting agendas (make meetings professional, it matters!)
 - Where do they need help or are overwhelmed?
 - AzFRW Bylaws, Standing Rules etc.

Goal: Create a Region Directors Notebook that contains all club bylaws, current officers, newsletters or pending events AND the reference documents above, all of which may be found on the AzFRW website. Region Directors are leaders and mentors and should be prepared when they visit their clubs, especially for the first visit with new officers.

- If Region Directors are aware they have clubs who are not in attendance at a State Meeting, they should pick up the information packets from Registration or the Secretary. These should be mailed or hand delivered to their clubs as quickly as possible. Please do not delay weeks until your next club visit. Encourage club attendance.

THE REPUBLICAN OATH

- A. I believe that the proper function of government is to do for the people those things that have to be done but cannot be done, or cannot be done as well by individuals, and that the most effective government is government closest to the people.
- B. I believe that good government is based on the individual and that each person's ability, dignity, freedom and responsibility must be honored and recognized.
- C. I believe that free enterprise and the encouragement of individual initiative and incentive have given this nation an economic system second to none.
- D. I believe that a sound money policy should be our goal.
- E. I believe in equal rights, equal justice and equal opportunity for all, regardless of race, creed, age, sex or national origin. I believe that persons with disabilities should be afforded equal rights, equal justice and equal opportunity as well.
- F. I believe we must retain those principles worth retaining, yet always be receptive to new ideas with an outlook broad enough to accommodate thoughtful change and varying points of view.
- G. I believe that Americans value and should preserve their feeling of national strength and pride, and at the same time share with people everywhere a desire for peace and freedom and the extension of human rights throughout the world.
- H. Finally, I believe that the Republican Party is the best vehicle for translating these ideals into positive and successful principles of government.
