

Art In The Community

My dear talented ladies! Spring is upon us and the weather has warmed (mostly). Time to start thinking about our summer flower contest. This year's title is the Wilt-less, Guilt-less Faux Garden Tour and Rose Show! We've added live roses to our categories and I can't wait to see what you come up with. I'm sure I don't need to remind you to please be fair to your fellow crafters and follow the rules I've enclosed.

I can't wait to see this year's "crop"!!! See you in July!

Wilt-less, Guilt-less Faux Garden Tour and Rose Show

We are still having fun making our own flowers but this year we are bringing back a rose from the garden! Get your mind and hands working! Make a bunch of flowers, arrange them and show off your talent. Or buy some lovely silks and arrange them in a container. There's so much we can do without growing them. Ask your fairies to borrow their garden homes or make a new one for them. It's such fun to create! Then find that One Perfect Rose in your garden and bring it along.
