

Christmas vs. Christ's Mass

Christmas is an annual festivity;
Christ's Mass is a
daily celebration.

Christmas has spawned
many rituals;
Christ's Mass is
the Liturgy.

Christmas has a blend
of the secular;
Christ's Mass is always sacred.

At Christmas
we gather by
the tree;
at Christ's Mass
we assemble around
the altar

At Christmas
we like to sing
carols;
at Christ's Mass
our songs are hymns.

All join in the merriment
of Christmas;
only believers participate in Christ's Mass.

At Christmas we engage in good cheer;
at Christ's Mass we greet God coming near.

At Christmas we exchange
our presents;
at Christ's Mass we proclaim God's presence.

The Christmas season is festooned with
wreaths of holly;
at Christ's Mass
we are covered with garlands of the holy.

At Christmas we want to meet Santa;
at Christ's Mass
we join the saintly.

At Christmas
we are filled with delight;
at Christ's Mass
we are bathed in the Light.

So, never let the frenzy
of Christmas
disturb the fervor
of Christ's Mass.

© Msgr. Walter Niebrzydowski
December 27, 1998
Fr-Walter@nyc.rr.com
www.fatherwaltersparish.org