Stagecoach Country Music Festival

About 50,000 people came daily to the 3rd Annual Stagecoach Country Music Festival. Legends from yesteryear and top names in country today played on three stages at the Empire Polo Fields in Indio. Phil Vassar, Sugarland and Keith Urban; the Mustang and Palomino stages had such legends as Ray Price and the incredible B J Thomas.

SOAPNET was again part of "Stagecoach" and brought ABC soap operas best known actors to give autographs and pose for photos. Fans waited in long lines to be able to get up close and personal with their favorite star. "Tad" Michael Knight and "David", Vincent Iriizarry from AMC and "Bo" Robert S. Wood and "Blair" Kassie DiPaiva from One Life to Live were a few who participated.

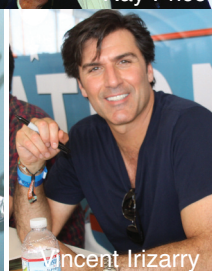

Batman Adam West Gets A Star

What a day it was! Our favorite "Batman" legendary Adam West was honored by The Palm Springs Walk of Stars and awarded its 329th star located on Palm Canyon

Drive. More than 200 friends and fans attended this star unveiling that came with incredible Batman, Batgirl and Robin look-a-likes who stood in the audience. And then my god...it was off to the Batcave!

The 3rd Annual "One Night Only" at the McCallum Theatre to benefit Jewish Family Services of the Desert. Rex Reed was the emcee and Carol Lawrence did an absolutely hysterical skit with men from the audience.
