

Solicitation Policy

The Fox River Grove Public Library or the Friends of the Library only may do selling, fundraising, or membership drives on Library property. No one else may engage in sales, giveaways, fund raising, membership drives, literature distribution, or any other solicitation activity without the written authorization of the Director. Obtaining petition signatures is not permitted on Library property.