

1983
EMORY G. MOTZ

Emory Motz, 77, lifelong Oliver Township farmer, died Tuesday at Huron Memorial Hospital, near Bad Axe, after a long illness.

He was born Sept. 25, 1905 in Oliver Township, son of the late Jeremiah and Elizabeth (Fleschman) Motz.

Emory Motz and Miss Beulah Herford were married Oct. 15, 1932 in East

Detroit.

He was a member of the Elkton United Methodist Church, the Elkton Historical Society, and the Flowing Well Farm Bureau.

Surviving are his wife, Beulah; three sons, Leon Motz, Fennville, Jay Motz, Pigeon, and Dale Motz, Kalamazoo; nine grandchildren; one brother, Gordon Motz, Greenbush, and two sisters, Mrs. Ella Ramseyer, Elkton, and Mrs. Dorothy Snider, Okemos.

Services will be 11 a.m. Saturday at the Elkton United Methodist Church. The Rev. Joel Hurley, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery, Elkton.

Friends may call after 7 p.m. Thursday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton.