Course Description:

This updated for 2017, Non-Language Specific three (3) CIMCE credit hour course will outline and familiarize the Student with “Non-Ballistic” (Clubs, Knives, Hand-Held) weapons and tools used in the commission of crimes. It will outline the history and evolution of weapons and how they are being utilized by today's criminal element as well as weapons and equipment utilized by current law enforcement professionals. Students will learn the diverse types of weapons used in custody environments as well as typical weapons used on the streets by criminal gang members and other law offenders. Current terminology and nomenclature will be emphasized as part of this dynamic three-hour course, along with basic overviews of how weapons work, and the seemingly harmless household items used to make them.

Instructor:

Jeff Torres is currently a full time Law Enforcement Professional with over 20 years of Law enforcement experience. His vast experience in many high-level felony investigations include, Homicide, Robbery, Narcotics, Sexual Assault and Death Investigation to name a few.
