Course Description: ***

This Non-Language Specific three (3) credit hour, Instructor led course*, will outline and familiarize the Interpreter with current laws, terminology and trends as it pertains to “Social Media” and “Dark Web” criminal activity in today’s society, and which is ending up in today’s courtrooms on a regular basis. For this block of instruction, the language professional can expect to gain valuable insight into the different social media platforms used, terminology and processes encountered, and the criminal investigations that commonly involve social media and the internet. Extortion? Prostitution? Narcotics? Bullying? See and learn the methods, terminology and platforms commonly used, and which have become a norm in today’s society which includes our active criminal element!

*Course may also be presented via webinar with “live” interactive Instructor participation and moderation.

Instructor:

As a full time law enforcement professional with over 25 years of law enforcement experience, supervision and training, Mr. Jeff Torres brings his many years of comprehensive experience as both an investigator and supervisor in many high-level felony investigations which include, Homicide, Robbery, Narcotics, Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence and Death Investigation to name a few. Mr. Torres’ knowledge of criminal justice investigative processes and procedures brings to the language professional many years of industry specific terminology and procedure-based knowledge from both the “field” and justice system perspective. As part of Mr. Torres resume, he was assigned to supervise the daily law enforcement operations at a California Superior Court where he oversaw all aspects of courtroom and court facility security and law enforcement operations.
