

10 Amazing Things To See & Do In East Sacramento

Catrina Pang

Updated: 21 March 2016

In the cozy eastern neighborhood of California's capital city, residents and visitors alike are treated to many unique community-centric local attractions. Whether you have a passion for the Sacramento community and its history, or simply appreciate art, cuisine, and culture, you'll find plenty of things that will amaze you in the area. Below, we guide you through ten things to see and do in East Sacramento that you definitely won't want to miss.

Cabana Winery and Bistro

An urban winery known for producing award-winning wines, Cabana Winery and Bistro is home to an exciting tasting room and bistro that offers live music every Friday and Saturday night. The name Cabana came from the thought that tasting wine and eating great food is like a day at the beach. Owned by the Smerling family, who had 17 years of winemaking experience in the foothills before deciding to open the winery, Cabana was encouraged by Sacramento's people to add a bistro to the wine business, an unusual luxury. As a result, the family selected vineyards in Napa and Lodi, then set about making their award-winning wines. The bistro menu is made fresh daily using the finest ingredients. Appetizers include cheese boards and charcuterie boards, and patrons love the wood fired pizzas and daily specials. The tasting room has many wines for guests to try, or they can buy a glass or bottle and sit and relax with it on the outside patio. Inside, romantic bistro seating provides the perfect location for a date night or special occasion made all the more special with the addition of a perfect wine. Cabana sells wine by the bottle or case, and there is also a backyard that holds numerous concerts and private parties, including fundraisers and weddings.

Cabana Winery and Bistro, 5610 Elvas Ave, Sacramento, CA, USA, +1 916 476 5492