Biography

Elwood Edward Hammerle, age 79, of Bad Axe Michigan, passed away on May 15, 2019 at Covenant Hospital in Saginaw, Michigan from complications of a surgery.

Elwood was born May 3, 1940 at home in Paris Township, son of the late Walter and Martha (Helewski) Hammerle and was one of thirteen children in the family.

He was married to Marlene Vegenski (Peyok) on May 24, 1980 in Ubly, Michigan.

Elwood Hammerle was employed for forty years at Active Industry (now Tower Automotive) located in Elkton, Michigan. He retired in 2005 and enjoyed fourteen years of retirement. He enjoyed riding his beloved Harley Davidson Trike on any day of the week, rain or shine. Elwood loved watching all the Michigan sports that were offered, college and pros. He enjoyed his little fury friend Roxie that would always be by his side. Elwood enjoyed socializing with anyone that he came across and could have a conversation with no matter if he knew you or not. It seemed like anywhere he would go, he always knew someone. He loved to talk to others.

Finally, he enjoyed family gatherings, camping and nightly campfires.
