

Age under 1

1. Hepatitis B

Normally three injections.

Dosing schedules may vary depending on brand of vaccine and health status of child.

Hepatitis B Vaccination.

A partial series is acceptable so long as at the time of the immigration medical the next injection in the series is not due.

or

Show proof of immunity to Hepatitis B on an antibody titers blood test.

2. Combination Vaccine for:

Diphtheria

Tetanus

Polio

Pertussis

Hib

This series usually begins at age 2 months with a second booster at 4 months and a third at age 6 months. Your child must be as up-to-date as possible with the series at the time of the immigration medical.

3. Pneumococcal conjugate vaccine (Pevnar)

Required for children 2 months of age up to 59 months of age.

4. Rotavirus

Required for children age 2 to 6 months.

5. Influenza (Flu shot)

Required for everyone over 6 months of age. (during flu season only - November to February)