

Pieces or the Whole

So I've been thinking and asking God what He wanted to say to His people for 2019.

Just now 10am on 12/31/18, I heard the following:

“I have given My people the tools they need to press through in the world & circumstances that they live in. I have given them spiritual strength to overcome the physical. I AM – and I AM intense, I AM strength, I AM mystery, I AM supernatural, I AM all that everyone would ever need in their LIFETIME.

I know a lot of My people think they can't handle the depths and intensity with which I've called them to, but they are wrong. In My presence is fullness of joy, peace, and love – also in My presence is a stripping away of human, a chipping away of fleshly things, a chiseling away of older beliefs, habits, and fears.

A lot of My people have come to Me & have entered My presence, only to leave before they have fully prepared, fully conquered, fully known the plans and purposes of any given moment that I have for them.

I want My people, My precious sons and daughters to know that they can handle My presence, I have made it so – Jesus makes a way to My holiness and as they linger more and more in My presence, they will start to see that change is good and it's needed.

I long to see My people flourish in a steady mode – not an “in/out” mentality, not a “3 steps forward, 1 step back” mentality – I need them to know that they can handle more of Me and that in remaining steadfast with me, they will see steady outcomes in their jobs, families, finances, and relationships. I AM NOT a hit or miss God, I AM NOT a here today, gone tomorrow God, I AM NOT a Love them and Leave them God – I AM secure in all I AM – and it is My desire to show security, starting with My presence in their lives.”

I needed to hear this – I was thinking of my life in 2018 and those I love as well – and I've seen stop and go in myself and those around me. God knows the desires of my heart and yours. Our prayer here at GAHF for 2019 is that we all develop the courage and motivation to STAY in His presence for longer moments at a time to get the fullness of what He has for us so that it can manifest fully in our lifetime and not have a whiplash spirituality or mentality. In Jesus name, Amen.
