

BREAK EVERY CHAIN

There is power in the name of Jesus.

All of last week's words and Gina's word yesterday have been speaking about one key question.... Do you believe that God is who He says He is or not?

Do you feel like you are in preparation mode or do you feel like you are constantly spinning and repeating everything you learn over and over?

I'm talking about the victory in Jesus that is powerful!

John 18:5-6 – They answered Him, “Jesus of Nazareth.” Jesus said to them, “I am He.” And Judas, who betrayed Him, also stood with them. ⁶Now when He said to them, “I am He,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

If Jesus saying “I Am He” produced power enough to make soldiers fall to the ground with His very words and He has told that greater works we will do because we have the power of the Holy Spirit – then the chains that bind us from moving in certain areas of our life are about to come off and be no longer!!

I would like to ask you once again, do you believe?

As I said once before I was at a retreat a couple of weeks ago and I'm still meditating on all that was done there. One thing in particular was a “Yield Sheet” that a precious woman of God gave me – I'm soooooo blessed to have it and I've been praying about when to share it with everyone. I will say that I know it's soon – but really – it's just helping us exercise DAILY the power that we have in Jesus Christ. It's reading the Word of God over our lives and our family. It is believing that Jesus is in you and me and He is our hope!

Clinging to the truth, believing the truth, is what propels us into His presence, chains will just fall off in the presence of the Lord – things that bind have no place in the presence of God because He brings freedom. I know when I'm in His presence, I've felt sometimes like “I just wanna stay here forever and not do anything else but love You Jesus” – the reality? Is that we are here on this earth for a reason and we need to be free of all chains so that we can move more and more effortlessly in the power of the Holy Spirit. Of course it's the power of the Lord that works in us, but we have to be a vessel, a pot willing to be shaped, a conduit – an open window for the Lord to flow.

TAKE 5 !

Go ahead – take 5 minutes and just speak in your heavenly language if you haven't already today. When you are done, I'm going to ask you again, do you believe? Chains are being loosed even now as you are tapping into faith and shifting the atmosphere around you. BELIEVE!

Ask the Lord for direction for the next thing – start with baby steps, like this. You finish your task, you are obedient to the Lord and you move on. You pray in the spirit again and pretty soon – the chains that bound you have no hold because your mind is stayed on Him and the battleground in your mind has been roped off. Off Limits!!

You have to open your mouth and speak. Jesus didn't walk around silently praying, hoping that all would just understand because His Father knew His heart! He spread the news of His light, His way, His truth everywhere He went and He brought the power with Him to change, heal, and set free those who longed for it.

Do I have to do this all day? Umm.... what about this means you can't keep working? You are at work? I get it – speak in tongues for 5 minutes while you are on the computer, on hold on the phone, making copies, filing, running errands, changing a diaper, writing on the chalkboard, handing out tests to students, cleaning the house, making dinner, in the bathroom...

Chains are nothing when you know Who holds the key! The Lord holds the key to all that you needs answers for and He is all too pleased to carry your load, your burden, your stress. Supernatural freedom is waiting and it has your name on it. BREAK THE CHAINS!

Have a WONDERFUL Tuesday!
