High Strung Reunion

The sound of High Strung Reunion is rooted in the traditions of bluegrass music with influences from the genre's leading contemporary artists. Their repertoire includes selections from the six decade span of the "high-lonesome" sound, plus lively bluegrass arrangements of familiar popular songs. High Strung Reunion performs this material with a passion for the drive, harmony and fun of bluegrass music. The result is an energetic, flat-picking, down-home, entertaining experience.

Rockingham Groove

Thursday 7pm at the Bandstand

rockingham groove

With more color and twists than a pretzel from the Play-Doh Fun Factory, the Rockingham Groove lays down over 6 decades of hip-swinging big-brass R&B sound. From Etta, Stevie & Aretha to J. Geils, King Floyd & The Specials, this 15-piece Rhythm & Blues Orchestra blows down an eclectic range of Soul, Funk & Rock grooves that make your feet itch and your extremities twitch. A dance party not to be missed!

Rockwood Taylor Band

Saturday 12:30pm and 3:30pm at the Relaxation Grove

Rockwood Taylor

Charlie Rockwood Farr and Lynne Taylor are singer songwriters and multi-instrumentalists based in Newburyport MA. The edgy Americana duo calls on a wide range of influences from Woody Guthrie to John Prine and Townes Van Zandt, Billie Holiday to Patti Smith. The result is a collection of rootsy, gutsy, honest songs that transcend boundaries, taking the listener on a gritty journey through our collective human experience.

Sidewalk and Steelqueen are a regional roots duo hailing from the New Hampshire seacoast. Their high energy songs blend Tom Richter's 5 string clawhammer banjo with the unique National Steel cittern sound of Carol Coronis in clubs, breweries, house concerts and book stores. Together they blend distinctive harmonies in songs ranging from the 1960s to today's local New Hampshire songwriter scene.
