

I used to be called the 'dizzy grey-haired grandma'. I often just felt dizzy and unsteady. My doctors told me I was getting old and I'd just have to live with it. Dr. Sanders determined my problem was due to migraine, even though I wasn't having headaches. He started me on a medication, and for the first time in years, I haven't felt dizzy!

H. Schaffner
Logansport, IN