ACTIVITY KIT

A DELICIOUSLY CLEVER TALE!

In DOUGH KNIGHTS AND DRAGONS, a curious knight and an amiable dragon bond over their shared love of baking. But in the kingdom where they live, friendship between dragons and knights is outlawed, and the two are required to duel in an upcoming tournament. Can the unlikely pair cook up a way to save their secret friendship?

This packet includes a variety of fun reproducible activity sheets. There are things to draw, games to play, puzzles to solve, writing prompts, and songs to sing. Choose the pages that are suitable for your skill level and have a scrumptious time!

Festive Food Fight

Divide into teams. Play as many rounds as you'd like. The winner is the person or team with the most points at the end.

ROUND 1 - MIXED VEGETABLES

Have a teacher or leader scramble the letters of a vegetable. The first one to unscramble the word earns a point. Use as many scrambled foods as desired.

ROUND 2 - DRIED FOOD TOSS

Fill some zippered pouches (such as pencil cases) with dried beans, seeds, or rice. Take turns tossing the bags into a kettle, box, or bucket. Score one point each time the bag lands in the container.

ROUND 3 - UNFORGETTABLE FOODS

Have a teacher or leader show you a poster with pictures of ten foods. Look at the poster for 20 seconds. When the poster is turned over, test your memory. Earn a point for each food your team is able to write down in two minutes.

ROUND 4 - FULL OF BEANS

Guess how many dried beans there are in a jar. The person who is closest earns five points for the team. The second closest person earns three points.

ROUND 5 - MATCHING PAIRS

Cut out ten different food pictures. Glue each one onto a separate note card. Use ten more note cards. Write one of the food names on each one. Mix the cards and place them face down. Take turns flipping over two cards. Remove the cards when you match a word to its picture. Earn a point for each pair.

ROUND 6 - A DOZEN DRAGON EGGS

Have someone hide twelve plastic eggs. Put a slip of paper with the word "dragon" in one of them. Earn a point for each egg your team finds. Score three egg-stra bonus points for the one with the word "dragon" in it.

ROUND 7 - DOUGHNUT RINGS

Stand a bottle or a can upright. Toss plastic rings at it. Earn one point for each ring that lands around the target. Option: Paint the rings to look like doughnuts.

Story Songs

Have fun singing these songs about the story, Dough Knights and Dragons.

UP! WOKE THE DRAGON

(Sung to the tune of "Pop, Goes the Weasel")

A little of this, a little of that.
The knight kept addin' and addin'.
The simmerin' soup made a wonderful scent.
Up! Woke the dragon.

WHAT WILL WE DO?

(Sung to the tune of "Skip to My Lou")

We have to battle. What'll we do?
We have to battle. What'll we do?
We have to battle. What'll we do?
What'll we do, dear dragon?

Mix and measure and make something new.
Mix and measure and make something new.
Mix and measure and make something new.
That's what we'll do, dear dragon.

Teach the others of friendship true.
Teach the others of friendship true.
Teach the others of friendship true.
That's what we'll do, dear dragon.

D-O-N-U-T

(Sung to the tune of "B-I-N-G-O")

A knight and dragon loved to bake
and they dreamed up the donut.
D-O-N-U-T, D-O-N-U-T, D-O-N-U-T,
and they dreamed up the donut.

A knight and dragon loved to bake
and they dreamed up the donut.
(clap)-O-N-U-T, (clap)-O-N-U-T, (clap)-O-N-U-T,
and they dreamed up the donut.

(Continue taking out one more letter and adding one more clap in its place for the remaining verses.)

KNIGHTS AND DRAGONS CAN'T BE FRIENDS

(Sung to the tune of "Head, Shoulders, Knees, and Toes")

Knights and dragons can't be friends, can't be friends.
Knights and dragons can't be friends, can't be friends.
That is how the Dough Knight tale begins.
Knights and dragons can't be friends, can't be friends.

Knights and dragons always fought, always fought.
Knights and dragons always fought, always fought.
That is what they always had been taught.
Knights and dragons always fought, always fought.

There was a friendly knight and beast, knight and beast.
There was a friendly knight and beast, knight and beast.
They both bonded over dough and yeast.
There was a friendly knight and beast, knight and beast.

The two concocted a fine plot, a fine plot.
The two concocted a fine plot, a fine plot.
It involved some oil and a pot.
The two concocted a fine plot, a fine plot.

Knights and dragons CAN be friends, can be friends.
Knights and dragons CAN be friends, can be friends.
That is how the Dough Knight story ends.
Knights and dragons CAN be friends, can be friends.

A KNIGHT FOUND A DEN

(Sung to the tune of "The Farmer in the Dell")

A knight found a den.
A knight found a den.
Hi-ho, a dragon...oh!
A knight found a den.

Follow the pattern with these additional verses:
The knight made some soup...
The dragon smelled the meal...
The knight jumped in fright...
The two became best friends...
The law said they must fight...
They came up with a plan...
The story ended well...

Tic Tac Dough

Help the dragon and knight figure out which three words on each tic-tac-dough board rhyme. Draw a straight line through each set of rhyming words.

When a knight came of age he was bound by a rule to spear a winged beast in a challenging duel.
And a dragon was also required to fight,
commanded by edict to swallow a knight.
The upcoming match filled the friends with great fear,
for both were required to take part that year. . .
