

Anderson, Jill M.

Jill M. Anderson, 52, of Pigeon, passed away Friday, February 6, 2004, at Scheurer Hospital in Pigeon following a long illness. Born in Pigeon on November 16, 1951, she was the daughter of Mildred Damm and the late Merlin Damm. Jill is a graduate of Laker High School Class of 1969. On September 6, 1969, Jill and Charles Anderson were united in marriage in Pigeon. She is a member of the Salem United Methodist Church in Pigeon. Jill enjoyed gardening, shopping, playing cards, trips to the casino, going to the family cabin up north, reading and spending time with family and friends. Jill is survived by her husband of 34 years, Charles Anderson, of Pigeon, her daughter, Traci Anderson and her special friend, Rich Wisenbach, of Bad Axe; her mother and step-father, Mildred and Walter Rosenthal, of Pigeon; sisters, Janet Henne and her husband, Dennis, of Bay Port, Jane Pobanz and her husband, Cliff, of Pigeon; mother-in-law, Lois Anderson, of Caseville; a sister-in-law, Karen Elsesser and her husband, Jim, of Charlotte; a brother-in-law, John Anderson and his wife, Marla, of Asheville, North Carolina; and several nieces and nephews. Jill was preceded in death by an infant daughter, Tammy Jo; her father, Merlin, and father-in-law, Wayne Anderson. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. on Monday, February 9, 2004, in the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon, with the Rev. Michael Sawicki, pastor of Salem United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Grand Lawn Cemetery, Pigeon. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. on Sunday in the funeral home, and from 10 a.m. Monday until the time of service.