

Jacob's Ladder

This native perennial is great for a partially shaded rock garden. Jacob's ladder is a nectar source for bees. It makes a good ground cover and is known to have medicinal uses. It is also said to be deer resistant

Polemonium reptans

- Hardiness: Zone 3-8
- Size: 12-18"
- Flower: Delicate light blue flowers in late Spring
- Culture: Prefers moist, well-drained soil and partial to full shade
- Uses: Rock garden, naturalizing, woodland garden, bees, deer resistant

NATIVE TO EASTERN UNITED STATES