

Student Creed

I intend to develop myself in a positive matter and avoid anything that would reduce my mental growth or my physical health.

I intend to develop self discipline in order to bring out the best in myself and others.

I intend to use what I learn in class constructively and defensively: to help myself and my fellow man and never to be abusive or offensive.