

Hello Happy Quilters! Becky (that's me) will be demonstrating how to make a double handed oven mitt. They are great gifts for upcoming holidays in any fabric you desire. I was thinking even the quilted fabric would be good for this oven mitt.

I think we will have fun doing this project together. So join me October 3rd.

Supplies

- 1/4 yard fabric for exterior
- 1/4 yard fabric for interior\lining
- 1/4 yard fabric for pocket
- 1/2 yard of Insul-Brite (found in the interfacing section of the store)
- 1 package of 1/2"-wide double-fold bias tape or enough fabric to make 3 yards of bias binding
- Water-soluble marker
- Rounded object such as a dinner plate (I Have a half circle that should work, all my plates and bowls are square!!!!)
- Ruler
- Rotary cutter/mat or scissors
- Thread to match

Step 1) Cut the fabric pieces

Outer fabric:

- cut one 7" x 35" rectangle

Lining:

- cut one 7" x 35" rectangle

Pocket fabric: cut four 7" x 10" rectangles

Insul-Brite:

- cut one 7" x 35" rectangle
- cut two 7" x 10" rectangles
