TOUR LEADERS (accompanying the entire trip)

Rev. Edwin Arrison was a close friend, partner, and anti-apartheid activist with the late Nobel Prize laureate, Archbishop Desmond Tutu. He lectures around the world on Tutu's spirituality of ubuntu. He is the leader of Kairos South Africa and a friend of Kairos Palestine.

Deon Kitching is the founder of Embrace South Africa tours (www.embracesouthafricatours.com). A retired pastor, he has 20+ years of experience offering tours exploring the beauty of South Africa's landscape and people as well as issues of historical, cultural, religious, and social significance.

Dr. Michael Spath is the founder of Indiana Center for Middle East Peace and a retired Religious Studies professor. He has led tours to Palestine and Israel, Turkey, Greece, Jordan, Egypt, and co-led tours to South Africa. Opportunities provided throughout for debriefing, discussion, reflection with Edwin, Deon, and Michael Optional: Worship @ St. George's Cathedral, Cape Town, where Archbishop Desmond Tutu served (and is buried)
