A MESSAGE FROM WALK #131 LAY DIRECTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Central Alabama Emmaus Community,

Over the past eight years of serving within this ministry there have been a number of blessings that have occurred as part of God's team. We have seen a mobile kitchen and a huge white tent take the place of an aging kitchen and dining room that were "under construction." We have stayed up until 4 AM with Alabama Power trying to get power restored to a sweaty group of pilgrims. We have helped clean up after the plumbing backed up into the pilgrims' bathrooms. We have made late night medicine runs into the booming metropolis of Dadeville, AL. All of these have been proof that God works, no matter the circumstances.

As we all know, the blessings don't stop at the gates of Camp Alamisco. They follow us to our homes, work places, and churches (not to mention the many other places we may go and grow). It may be a simple smile at work, a new leadership position at your place of worship, or a move that you never expected. No matter what, there are plenty of them. Along with these comes the inevitable – change.

Changes have abounded in our household over the past few years, and we are counting on God to show us where He wants us next. I am reminded of a song that some of you may recognize:

*When it's time to change, then its time to change,
Don't fight the tide, come along for the ride, don't you see
When it's time to change, you've got to rearrange
Who you are into what you're gonna be.*

Who knew that He would use The Brady Bunch to speak to the masses?

If there is one thing that I have come to trust, more and more, as my walk with Christ continues, is that God is always in control. The more willing we are to follow, the more blessings he bestows upon us. So, as my little brothers and sisters at Chrysalis would say... Fly with Christ!!!

As CAEW #131 begins and ends, I ask that we all stay vigilant in our prayers for each other. I pray that we all follow the path that our Lord and Savior has set forth for us.

De Colores,
Tré Munger

FROM THE SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR OF WALK 131

Every time I read Hebrews 6: 10, "For God is not unjust to forget your work and labor of love which you have shown toward His name, in that you have ministered to the saints, and do minister," I think about all the people that it takes to put on the Central Alabama Walk to Emmaus. I think about those serving unselfishly behind the scenes as well as those serving in the Conference Room.

They come and serve without recognition just because they love to serve. The Pilgrim's of Walk 131 may not know those who serve by name, but God does, "for God is not unjust to forget your work and labor of love." That's not just a promise, but a fact. Our heavenly Father will never forget your service. Those serving on the Conference Room team, Meal Prep, Meal service, Agape, Logistics, Worship, Speakers Prayer Chapel, Sponsors Hour, Send-Off, Serenade, Candlelight, housing, Greeters, Refreshments, and especially those of you who prayed for all the Pilgrims and Conference Room team on Walk 131. Speaking on behalf of all the Conference Room team, we want to THANK YOU, for making Walk 131 the best walk ever.
