Biography

Betty Ann Stephenson, age 76, of Elkton, passed away peacefully at home on Monday, September 2, 2024. She was born on June 7, 1948, in Cass City, the daughter of the late William Roy and Mae (Russell) Rolston. Betty married George Stephenson on August 13, 1987. Betty was a devoted Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA), offering compassionate home care for the elderly. Her dedication to her role was evident in her willingness to welcome family members into her home, providing long-term care with kindness and commitment. In her free time, Betty enjoyed gardening, playing cards, baking, and watching scary movies. She had a sweet demeanor, though she was known to be fiercely competitive in games. Christmas was a special time for her, marked by her love for baking an abundance of treats. Betty also cherished spending time with her family and had a soft spot for penguins and her pets.
