

Today Matters

From time to time, everyone has that kind of a day. Sometimes you feel the presence of God and sometimes you don't. Either way, HE is there! There is NOTHING better than private time with HIM!

The condition of your relationship with God matters, and always affects your daily life. Your daily life in which your relationship with Him flows -consists of everything you do. This means your various works, service, labor, ministry, and leisure activities are all ways He moves through you.

However, it is your one-on- one private time with Him which is the fountain of supply and the foundation of support into your daily life. Your life is made luxuriant and productive as you spread your roots deep into the streams of the Word.

When you truly know your loving Heavenly Father and His Son Jesus, you will have no doubt in your heart that He knows what you are going through, and that you are still in His divine plan. You understand it's all part of the process as He molds you to be that beautiful vessel, with precious jewels in His sight.

It is your love for God that helps you to stay close to Him, rather than offering Him your obedience from a distance. There are times in life when God will set you up for an experience to take you where you've never been before. It may not be the ideal set up, but He is in it.

It will be your quiet time alone with God in His Word, that will sustain you and keep you nourished in the inner world of your spiritual life, which in turn helps govern the outer world of your activities. Today's devotion is to encourage you to continue to extend your heart deep into the Word of God and your life becomes truly productive in all things.

"... by taking heed thereto according to thy word. With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments. Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee" (Psalm 119:10-11).

Rev. Dr. Gina Cobb
January 9,2019