Deweydog's Dog Etiquette Guidelines

It is important that your dog be healthy and display temperament characteristics that are conducive to a fun and safe environment for all. Deweydog's Staff will give dogs that "just aren't feeling it" breaks, in a comfortable, safe kennel. _____

Please understand that Daycare is a lot like a kid's playground; accidents and scuffles DO happen. We screen our dogs very carefully here, but there is no way we can guarantee a 100% injury-free experience. Each and every owner is responsible for his or her dog alone; if your dog receives an injury that requires medical attention, you are responsible for the cost.

If, in our judgment, your dog requires immediate medical care, and we are unable to reach you, we will take your dog to a veterinarian or animal hospital.

Deweydog's reserves the right to immediately change your dog's type of boarding/daycare if we believe it is necessary to protect the health and well-being of your dog, other dogs, or our staff.
