- We still have spots available in our Theory II class. The theory classes are held in the BCRH Building. If you are interested, but not yet signed up you are welcome to attend and we we'll work the paperwork out this week.
- Due to some of the difficulties we have had with families receiving our weekly schedule and announcement email, we have added a link on our website to a posted schedule and announcement page. The website schedule will have less detail than the one you will see onsite on Saturdays, but it will give you a basic outline of times/and general locations.
