Montgomery is the capitol of Alabama and the county seat of Montgomery county. It is named for Richard Montgomery, located on the Alabama River in the Gulf Coastal Plain. As of the 2013 Census Montgomery was the 2nd largest city in Alabama and the 115th largest in the United States. In 1861 Montgomery was selected as the first capital of the Confederate States of America. In the mid-20th century, Montgomery was a major center of events and protests of the Civil Rights Movement, including the Montgomery Bus Boycott and the Selma to Montgomery Marches. Montgomery has also been recognized nationally for its downtown revitalization and new urbanism projects.
