Prayer for Hem of His Garment
A prayer by Rev. Loren McGrail based on Mark 5:21-43

Beloved, you who call us to be healers and justice seekers we ask for prayers today for still bleeding Palestine.
She is hemorrhaging but also reaching out for an end to 67 years of forced displacement and dispossession reaching out for peace with justice

It takes courage to reach out to us, to our sense of morality or our courts for justice, to believe that when you violate rights something will happen, someone will be held accountable.

It takes courage to believe in wholeness—that you deserve to be able to live in your home, make a living, see your kids grow up with a future, that you deserve happiness.

It takes courage to dream when all you can see are walls and piles of rubble from demolished homes, olive trees burning,
your children imprisoned and tortured.

Beloved, clothe us in your garments with fringes both majestic and humble because they reach for the heavens and touch the dusty ground.

Help us to know when we are being called forth to offer prayers for healing and support or actions for justice.
You who said it ends with Him, who asks us to drink from the cup of salvation, empower us to reach back—stop the bleeding restore health re-establish your Beloved Community on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.
