NOTICE: RETURN TO THE JUDGING ARENA

These Trials will be held in the Judging Arena for protection from possible high winds that are common in April. Rio Grande Obedience Dog Club asks exhibitors to observe CDC guidelines at the time of the Trials. Crating in the building will be permitted only for members of the Trial Committee and Stewards, who may crate in the concessions area. There will be a limited number of covered parking spots for crating from vehicles available in the Pig Barn immediately to the east of the arena. In addition, the Executive Office Building, a one-story building immediately to the north of the arena, has room for numerous crates and is air conditioned. This building also has a single unisex toilet to supplement the restrooms in the Judging Arena.

THE JUDGING ARENA HAS EVAPORATIVE COOLING, WHICH WILL BE TURNED ON IF REQUIRED.

Hospitality for exhibitors at the Trials will be limited. Coffee and hot water for tea, as well as creamer, sugar, sweetener, and a few sweets will be available in the Executive Office Building. There will be no concessions at the site. Plan to bring your own beverages and snacks, and possibly your lunch. There are a few fast food options within 1.5 miles of the Coliseum. Boxed lunches will be available for the Trial Committee and those who volunteer to steward.
