Coryell County Youth Fair
General Rules
VIOLATORS OF RULES ARE SUBJECT TO DISQUALIFICATION

1. All exhibitors will be under the control of the Board of Directors who will use diligence to ensure the safety of all exhibits and to protect against loss or damage done or acquired while on the grounds of the show. Entries removed without written release from the superintendent of the appropriate divisions will be fined $250.00.
2. No claim or suit of injury to any person or property shall be asserted against the show or its sponsors, its officers, or agents, by any person, firm, or corporation or their agents, representatives, servants, or employees having permits to exhibit or occupy space on the grounds of the show.
3. Capable judges will be selected to judge all entries. THE DECISION OF THE JUDGES WILL BE FINAL! No one except judges and authorized personnel will be allowed in the judging areas while judging is in progress. No immediate family member of any Home Economic exhibitor will be selected as a judge for the Home Economic Division to ensure fairness and no conflict of interest.
4. Disqualification of an entry in Home Economics can only be made by all the General Superintendents and at least 2 Fair Board Directors/Officers. Disqualification of an entry in livestock can only be made by the Superintendent and at least 1 Fair Board Director/Officer.
5. Exhibitor Eligibility:
 - A. All exhibitors must meet two (2) of the three (3) following criteria:
 - a. Be a bona fide FFA, FCCLA, or 4-H member in Coryell County (in good standing) as of November 1, 2025
 - b. Be enrolled in public or private school, including Jonesboro ISD, in Coryell County by September 1, 2025.
 - c. Live in Coryell County and be a bona fide 4-H member of Coryell County (in good standing) by November 1, 2025.
 - B. In addition, each exhibitor must be a member in good standing with Coryell County Youth Fair, Inc. Dues are $5.00 per exhibitor and $5.00 per parent/guardian per household and all exhibitors must be sponsored by at least one parent/guardian. The Eligibility of transfer students enrolling in public or private schools in Coryell County after September 1, 2025, will be handled on an individual basis at the discretion of the Board of Directors. All livestock of transferring students must meet eligibility rules.
 - C. Under a Texas Education Ruling, a student can be declared ineligible to compete in the Coryell County Youth Fair. If a student is considered ineligible by TEA or UIL, that student's project is also ineligible and may not be entered in the Fair. Home school students will be required to show proof of eligibility prior to Fair Week. If an exhibitor becomes ineligible anytime during the Fair, the Project is eliminated from activity.
 - D. Members showing in any other county youth fair are not eligible to show in the Coryell County Youth Fair.
 - E. Exhibitors must show their own animal unless the individual is showing more than one animal in the class. Those individuals not showing that animal must submit a written reason why they are not showing, and it must be approved by the Board of Directors prior to the show.
 - F. An exhibitor eligible for the premium sale and unable to attend the sale must submit for Board approval a written statement that designates a substitute showman to exhibit the project for the sale. The substitute must meet all the requirements as listed above and already be a bona fide CCYF participant.

6. Any protest must be in writing and be filed with a $100 cash protest fee to the Board within 24 hours following the show. If your protest is approved by the Board, the cash will be refunded. If you lose the protest, you forfeit the fee.

7. ALL entries will be completed online. All exhibitors must pay online, NO forms or money will be taken at the Civic Center or Extension Office. You will be able to begin online entries November 02, 2025 – November 15, 2025, at www.coryellyouthfair.com

Late entries start November 16, 2025, at 12 am and will be accepted online until 5 pm on November 30, 2025. As a penalty all entry fees will double!!!

9. NO PETS ARE ALLOWED IN SHOW BARN – No animals, other than those registered for exhibition or used as service animals, will be allowed in the Show Barn or Civic Center during the Youth Fair.
10. Disruptive and rude behavior will not be tolerated. Exhibitors, their families, and guests are expected to be respectful of others and their properties. Board members, officers, or any adult leaders who witness disruptive behavior may ask that person(s) to leave the premises; failure to do so may lead to legal action.

Premium Auction Rules
4:00 p.m., January 17, 2026
Livestock and Home Economics Division

An exhibitor eligible for the premium sale and unable to attend the sale must submit, for Board approval, a written statement that designates a substitute showman (who meets all the requirements to show as listed in the General Rules) to exhibit the project for sale.

A commission of 2.5% will be deducted from each item sold (including premium sale and add-ons). This sum will be added to the general fund of the Coryell County Youth Fair, Inc.

All youth who sell in the auction and/or win awards are required to write a thank-you note to their buyer/award sponsor.

Checks for premium money and auction money will be available to exhibitors at the general meeting. To receive your auction check, you must present your thank you notes at the GENERAL MEETING. Thank you note must be in an envelope which is stamped, addressed, and ready to mail.

Exhibitors may start removing their animals at the designated time on Friday and will be responsible for disposition.

1. Exhibitors may auction only one exhibit. (Livestock or Home Economics)
 - a. The livestock auction is officially a premium sale. Exhibitors will continue to own the item and may dispose of it as they wish.
 - b. Home Economics items will transfer ownership to the Buyer. The exhibitor shall be responsible for the care and delivery of their Home Economics items to their destination as determined by the buyer.
2. The following will be eligible for auction:
 - a. All Grand & Reserved Grand Champion Market Animals
 - b. 50% of each market class not to exceed 6th place (excluding GC and RC)
 - c. Grand & Reserve Champions in breeding stock (along with 4 Breed Division Champions in Beef Heifer Show and 8 Breed Division Champions in Rabbits)
 - d. All Grand & Reserve Champion in Home Economics for each age division
 - e. Overall GC High Point Horse (Senior & Junior divisions) (Overall RC may roll up only if GC in that age division is ineligible to sell.)
 - f. Items are ineligible if they have been in the Sale in previous years.
3. By 8:00 pm on Friday night, exhibitors who have Home Ec. and/or Livestock winning entries must designate their Sale item for the Auction in writing or the Sales Committee will make the decision if a designation is not made. The Board of Directors will compute the sale list after the Swine Show on Friday. If you want to know if you made the sale, please check with the Fair Office at 11:45am on Saturday.
4. It is mandatory all Exhibitors who make the Sale must have their picture taken before the auction (preferably by 8pm Friday night). Swine immediately following swine show. Home Economic entries that make the sale must be taken by 2pm Saturday.
5. All Livestock Exhibitors must clean your pen area by Saturday before the auction. If you are selling a Home Economic item, you must help set up the auction area Saturday morning before and after pictures are taken. Or $100.00 will be deducted from your check.

Livestock Special Rules & Regulations

1. Each exhibitor may show only 6 entries in the livestock division (excluding horses).
2. All livestock will be shown in the show ring except commercial market cattle.
3. Entries not meeting the requirements of the Superintendent will be barred from the show. Any visible parasites will bar the animal from being shown and that animal must be removed from the show barn immediately.
4. Failure to keep pens or stalls properly clean at all times will mean the forfeiture of any prize money earned. This will be checked daily by the Superintendent.
5. Ribbons will be awarded for 1st through 6th place and premium money will be paid subject to the $20 minimum rule.

TO ENTER AND SHOW RABBITS THE FOLLOWING RULES APPLY:

1. All rabbits must be validated even if they already have a tattoo. Rabbits can be tattooed at validation.
2. All rabbit entries must be entered online.

3. Meat pen rabbits must each weigh at least 3lbs 8oz. but no more than 5lbs 8oz. They do not have to be raised from a doe owned by the exhibitor, but they must be owned by the exhibitor by the validation date. A meat pen consists of three rabbits and will be disqualified if it contains more than one breed or variety. Exhibitors should check with the Superintendent if they have any questions about breeds. Rabbits will be weighed at check-in. Depending on their classification at check-in, meat pens may be reclassified into a fryer or breeding class. However, if a meat pen meets the weight requirements, it cannot be reclassified into a fryer or breeding class—no exceptions.

4. A fryer is a single rabbit weighing a minimum of 3lbs. 8oz. a and not over 5lbs 8oz. A fryer does not have to be raised from a doe owned by the exhibitor but must be owned by validation date. Fryers that don't make weight may re-classify to a breeding class if they meet those requirements.
5. Each Meat Pen MUST be selected before coming to the check-in table/official scales. Scales will be provided in the rabbit barn for pre-weighing.
6. Exhibitors will be assigned one pen for up to 3 fryers. You may bring your own carriers for penning.
7. Approximate breeding dates for market rabbits is October 5, 2025.
8. Rabbits with snuffles (discharge from nose), conjunctivitis (pinkeye), sore hocks, malocclusion, wry neck, or ear canker will be disqualified by the Superintendent and sent home. Rabbits with any of the above-listed illnesses are not allowed to be validated either.
9. Classes will be determined by the Superintendent according to the number of entries in each breed.
10. A 4-class and 6-class system will be used.

11. Exhibitors must check the posted class list Monday evening to make sure classes are correct. NO CHANGES WILL BE MADE TO THE CLASSES TUESDAY MORNING BEFORE THE SHOW. ANY CHANGES MUST BE MADE MONDAY NIGHT.

Rabbit Classes:

Meat Pen (3 rabbits): If there are more than 15 pens checked in the Superintendent may break the meat pen class into more than one class. This is at the superintendent's discretion.

Show Date:Monday, January 12, 2026, 9:30 a.m.

Release Date:Immediately After Show

The Horse show will be held in Coryell County, regardless of weather conditions. If the weather does not allow the show to be held on Monday it will be pushed back later in the week of the fair.

1. All CCYF rules apply, plus these horse show rules. Official State 4-H Horse Show Rule books can be picked up from Extension office or viewed at <http://texas4-H.tamu.edu>.
2. Horses may be registered or grade. Copies of registration papers or grade horse certification form must be turned in with entry. All new horses must be validated; Horses shown the previous year do not require to be re-validated; however, must turn in paperwork on November 8, 2025.
3. A current negative Coggins certificate will be required on Show Day.
4. Horse show entries will not count towards the 6 head maximum number of livestock entries per exhibitor. Entry fees, validation photos, copies of registration papers or grade horse certifications are due with all CCYF entries on sign up night.
5. No stallions will be shown, but weanlings are allowed.
6. Horses must be owned 90 days by the exhibitor or an immediate family member to be shown. Registration papers must be in the name of the exhibitor or immediate family member. (Immediate family members include grandparents, brothers, sisters, parents, stepparents, and legal guardians)
7. The age of a horse shall be computed based on a calendar year, starting January 1st of the year it foaled.
8. An exhibitor may show one horse in each listed class except for Western Trail. A substitute exhibitor may assist ONLY when a class has been combined and the exhibitor has more than one entry in the combined class. Otherwise, an exhibitor must show his/her own entry.
9. Classes may be combined at the superintendent's discretion according to the number of entries received.
10. The use of any kind of stimulants or depressants is prohibited. Any surgical procedure, foreign substance or drug that could affect a horse's performance or alter its natural conformation or appearance is prohibited.
11. Inhumane or abusive treatment may result in disqualification, at the discretion of show management.
12. Unsoundness may be penalized at the discretion of the judge. This decision is not subject to protest.
13. The judge's decision is final.

14. Entries in Senior & Junior Divisions will be eligible to participate in the premium auction. The Overall Junior and Senior High Point Horses will be eligible for sale. In subsequent years, these animals will not be eligible for the Sale if they have previously gone through the sale. The Reserve High Point will only move up in their respective age division if that Grand is ineligible.
15. Seniors: 9th – 12th Grade; Juniors: 3rd – 8th Grade
16. Points will be accrued according to General Rules. NO POINTS ARE GIVEN FOR WALK-TROT OR EXHIBITION CLASSES.

ATTIRE:

It is mandatory to wear appropriate attire, either western or English. Descriptions of attire can be found in the Texas 4-H Horse Show Rules and Regulations.

EQUIPMENT:

Halter/Showmanship classes - Use a clean halter that is adjusted to fit the horse. The halter should fit well on the horse's head to maximize response to subtle halter cues. Silver halters shall not count over a nice, well-fitted halter of other material. Lip chains: Mares and geldings may not be shown with any chain through the mouth including but not limited to lip chains.

Western Pleasure/Trail/Horsemanship classes – Horses shall be shown in a stock saddle that fits the rider. Silver equipment will not count over good, clean, working equipment. Horses may be ridden with a curb, spade, or half- breed bit. Split reins must be used and held in one hand with no more than one finger between the reins. If a Romal is used, fingers between the reins are not permitted. Curb bits must have shanks that do not exceed 8-1/2" (total length of upper and lower shank) and the port must be no higher than 3-1/2". Curb chains or straps must be at least 1/2" in width and must lie flat against the horse's chin. No wire curbs are permitted regardless of the amount of padding or tape. Absolutely no iron will be permitted under the jaws. Mechanical hackamores are prohibited. Bosals or nosebands are not permitted with a bit. Gag bits, tie downs, martingales, and draw reins are prohibited. Protective boots and leg wraps are not allowed in halter, showmanship, western pleasure, or western trail.

HORSE FITTING & GROOMING:

The horse should be clean and well-groomed. The fitting for mane and tail may vary according to recognized practices for particular breed of horse.

Horse Classes:

Halter:

A halter class is defined as a class where the horse is judged based upon its conformation. The purpose of this class is to select individuals in the order of their resemblance to the breed ideal and that are the most positive combination of balance, structural correctness, breed and sex characteristics and muscling. For halter class rules, attire, equipment and class routine refer to the Texas 4-H Horse Show Rules and Regulations.

Horse Showmanship:

Showmanship Junior (BUCKLE)
Showmanship Senior (BUCKLE)

The showmanship class is judged on an exhibitor's ability to execute practical and basic halter maneuvers from the ground. Judges will look for the exhibitor who can correctly perform each maneuver of the total pattern or run. In showmanship the halter conformation of the horse is not judged. For showmanship rules, attire, equipment, and class routine refer to the Texas 4-H Horse Show Rules and Regulations.

Western Horsemanship:

This class recognizes the exhibitor's ability to ride a horse functionally and correctly using various aids to cause the horse to perform required basic maneuvers. Riders will be judged on basic position in saddle, which includes the position and use of hands, seat, feet, and legs, as well as the ability to control and show the horse. Scores on individual works will be based on rider's skills and execution of the pattern. For western horsemanship rules, attire, equipment and class routines refer to the Texas 4-H Horse Show Rules and Regulations.

Junior (BUCKLE)
Senior (BUCKLE)

Western Horsemanship -Walk-Trot - JUNIOR NOVICE ONLY (RIBBONS)

This class recognizes a horse for functional correctness, quality of movement, attitude, manners, and the young age of both horse & rider. Class difficulty will be held to an appropriate age/experience standard (i.e., no loping). Classes will be broken according to the age group of the exhibitor. Attire, equipment, class routine, and rules will still reference the Texas 4-H Horse Show Rules and Regulations. Participation in this class will disqualify exhibitor/horse from Western Horsemanship Junior or Senior Division.

Western Pleasure:

This class recognizes a horse for functional correctness, quality of movement, attitude, and manners. Classes will be broken according to the age group of the exhibitor. For western pleasure rules, attire, equipment and class routine refer to the Texas 4-H Horse Show Rules and Regulations.

Home Economics General Rules & Regulations

Coryell County Youth Fair

Superintendents: Jana Jones 254-223-0358 Stephanie Hester 432-664-0003

Changes have been made to departments, divisions, and classes so pay close attention to these and make sure your project is entered in the correct class. No changes will be made to entry class after entries are checked in. If you have a question about where a project should be entered, please call a superintendent prior to check-in. Please be aware of Release Times. Make arrangements for someone to pick up your item if you cannot be there yourself. We are not responsible for items left after release times.

1. All General Rules for the Coryell County Youth Fair will apply to the Home Economics Division.
2. Exhibitors in Home Economics will be separated into three age groups according to their age as of September 1, 2025. Each age division will be judged separately within each department.

Age divisions are as follows:

- a. Junior – 3rd grade and 8 years old through 10 years old
 - b. Intermediate – 11-13 years old
 - c. Senior – 14 years old through 12th grade
3. The entry fee for the Home Economics Division is $5.00 per entry. There is a limit of 15 home economics entries per exhibitor.
 4. Entry Deadline is November 15, 2025.
 5. ENTRY: All Entries are to be made Online. No entries/money will be taken at the Civic Center or Extension Office. KEEP A COPY OF YOUR ENROLLMENT FORM/RECEIPT TO CHECK ENTRIES AGAINST BEFORE SHOW CHECK IN, January 13, 2026

Late enrollment entries and payment will be accepted online until 5 pm on November 30, 2025. Late entry fees will be double the fee of regular entries. ENTRIES WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED UNLESS ENTRY IS COMPLETED AND PAID ONLINE. NO ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER NOVEMBER 30, 2025.

6. CHECK IN COMPLETED FAIR ENTRIES: TUESDAY EVENING, January 13, 2026, from 5:00pm -8:00pm. This includes Pee Wee Home Economics entries. The door will close at 8:00 p.m. All Home Economic entries must be inside the Entry Room with check-in slips and note cards attached by 8:00p.m. Any entries not inside the Entry Room will not be accepted.

All completed entries must have standard WHITE index card(s) size 3x5 (preferred for Preserved Foods) or 4x6 attached stating how the item was made, steps involved, equipment used etc. Read each set of Department rules for specific information required for index cards. No larger size index cards will be accepted! Participants may print neatly or type cards. Cards need to be DETAILED to help the judges make informed decisions. NO PICTURES OR NAMES OF THE EXHIBITOR MAY BE ADDED TO CARDS; HOWEVER IT IS SUGGESTED YOU INCLUDE THE DIVISION, CLASS NUMBER AND CLASS NAME TO THE TOP OF EACH CARD AND ONLY USE THE FRONT OF CARD(S) FOR EXPLANATIONS.

7. If an item/entry has a specific assigned class, then it should be entered in that class and not in the “Other” category. Only items that do not fit in any other class can be placed in “Other”
8. No entries are to have any personalization such as names of any kind, initials, monograms, or brands.
9. During judging the name of the exhibitor will not be displayed. The exhibitor’s name may be displayed after judging.
10. EXHIBITS MUST REMAIN IN PLACE UNTIL 5pm ON FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 2026, except for Baked Goods (excluding Grand and Reserve) which are released on Wednesday at 7:00pm. Baked Goods not picked up at designated release times will be disposed of.
11. Exhibitors may submit only one entry in each class under each division unless otherwise stated, except for the Baked Goods where you may submit one entry in each DIVISION (one candy, one cookie, one cake, one bread, and one pie). Entries entered in the wrong class are subject to be disqualified.
12. In all cases, the entries must be the bona fide work of the person known as the exhibitor. Any entry found to be otherwise will be disqualified. All entries must have been made since the previous CCYF show. No team Home Economic Entries will be accepted. Must be the work of only one exhibitor. Previously entered items cannot be altered and reentered.
13. Ribbons will be given in each class through sixth place.
14. Grand and Reserve Champions will be selected from first place entries as the final judging process. Judges will determine these awards based on quality of item, difficulty of item, technical skills, creativity, information provided on the index card, and the Judge’s expert opinion. Judges have the right to deny a Grand and Reserve in a division if they feel the entries are not auction quality. In the Textiles Department, if a division has less than 5 total entries, judges can select the Reserve Champion from the second-place items. This will be left to the discretion of the General Superintendents if the entries meet this exception.

AUCTION SIGN UP: Grand and Reserve Champions will need to sign up for the Auction by 8:00pm FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 2026, at Designated Area.

AUCTION DAY: Newspaper Photos of the Grand & Reserve Champions will be taken SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 2026, at 10:30 am. Photos with non-baked good auction items must be taken by 2 p.m. SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 2026. All photos with baked good auction items or Large Items will be taken SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 2026 by 2p.m or after Newspaper photos. Exhibitors will check in home economic auction items with superintendents by 2:00 p.m. SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 2026.

15. The board, superintendents, department heads, advisors and volunteers of the Coryell County Youth Fair will not be responsible for theft of or damage to entries.

16. No alcohol, profanity, nudity, or suggestion thereof anywhere in or on items.

17. High Point Grand Champion, High Point Reserve Champion and Best of Show in each age division earn a buckle to be awarded before the auction on Saturday night.

18. READ THE RULES OF EACH DIVISION CLOSELY. ENTRIES SUBMITTED IN THE WRONG CLASS, OR ENTRIES THAT DO NOT MEET THE GUIDELINES SET FORTH IN THE RULES PROVIDED MAY BE DISQUALIFIED.

19. THERE WILL BE NO COUNTRY STORE. All Baked Goods not receiving a Grand or Reserve ribbon shall remain in place for public viewing until 7pm, Wednesday January 13, 2026. Grand and Reserve Champions will remain on display for public viewing until Friday, January 16, 2026, at 5pm.

20. Should any exhibitor wish to sale a home economic item not making auction, they may place a contact card with exhibitor's name and contact number on the item. This may be done once Home Economics is open to the public. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to handle the transaction and ensure the item stays in place for viewing until release on FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 2026, at 5pm.

PRESERVED FOODS

Entry Fee $5.00

Department Head: Della Altum 254-223-1248

All entries must be accompanied by a copy of canning instructions including HOW PROCESSED (The Processing Method should be listed in the upper righthand corner of the card for easy viewing.) on an index card(s) (3x5 preferred) to be turned in upon Check In. Index card(s) will not be furnished upon Check In.

INDEX CARD(S) SHOULD BE ATTACHED TO THE ENTRY PRIOR TO ARRIVAL AT FAIR CHECK IN. Index card(s) should be secured around jars by a rubber band ran through a hole punched in the top left-hand corner of the index card(s). These cards will be removed and stored after Judging is complete.

1. All Preserved Foods must have been canned since the previous show and processed by either hot water bath method or pressure canning. All jars must be sealed, HAVE RINGS, and free of spoilage. Those recipes not processed following regular canning procedures will not be accepted/judged. All essential ingredients are required to be listed in the recipe, to include secret spices (due to food allergies).
2. Products for canning may have been bought (such as peaches, apples, pears, and figs), but they must have been canned by exhibitor.
3. Pectin may be used commercially available, but no artificial coloring may be used including colored candies.
4. Jars may not be decorated by exhibitor in any way including bows, raffia, etc. Standard canning labels with the food's name and date canned are acceptable.
5. Exhibitors are not allowed to submit an entry into "Other" Class if a class is offered for that food.
6. Exhibitors are not allowed to submit egg or meat foods in any division except Dried Food.
7. No Dairy Products may be used in Preserved Foods (canning) due to food safety regulations. (i.e., Caramel Sauce/Syrup)
8. Preserved Foods will be released on FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 2026, from 5:00pm.

Entries not picked up at this time will be disposed of.

9. Entries will be judged according to the following regulations:
- a. Container
 - i. Standard half-pint or pint, canning jars must be used (no quart jars).
 - ii. Standard fruit jar lids, free from rust or corrosion. Hint: Store without ring.
 - iii. Must be sealed properly AND BE CLEAN.
 - b. Pack
 - i. Practical, but not fancy.
 - ii. Uniform in size whether whole or in pieces.
 - iii. Space in jar filled but not crowded, large proportions of vegetables to liquid.
 - iv. Vegetable or fruit covered with liquid.
 - c. Color
 - i. Characteristic of freshly cooked product – not faded or darkened.
 - ii. Liquid characteristic of product.
 - d. Texture and Flavor
 - i. Shape held, evenly graded.
 - ii. Uniform maturity.
 - iii. Not mushy from over-ripeness or over-cooking.
 - iv. Judges may open containers for tasting.
10. Grand and Reserve Champion winners selling in the auction must furnish an unopened jar(s) of judged product by 2pm on SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 2026, to Home Economics Superintendents.
11. Criteria for Dried/Dehydrated Foods
- a. Dried food must be displayed in either clear plastic quart size freezer bags with zip closure, glass jars with tight fitting lids, or in vacuum sealed bags. Vacuum sealing is recommended if possible.
 - b. Foods in unapproved containers will be disqualified.
 - c. Entries should consist of a minimum of 12 pieces of fruit, vegetables or jerky per container. Whole slice rather than pieces shall be entered.
 - d. No fruit leathers or trail mixes will be accepted.
 - e. No room, sun or solar dried/dehydrated entries will be accepted. Foods must be dried/dehydrated using dehydrators or ovens.
 - f. Entries will be judged on appearance, uniformity of slices, color, visual texture, etc.
 - g. Index card(s) shall contain the following information:
 - i. Method of Drying (Dehydrator, oven, or freeze dried)
 - ii. Time and Temperature of Drying
 - iii. Pre-treatment method (if used)
12. Entries that do not meet the guidelines set forth in these rules may be disqualified.
