Vietnam War Service A Grateful Nation Remembers

A half-century ago and for more than a decade, millions of American military personnel went to Vietnam to halt communist aggression and liberate its people. The courage and resolve they displayed – from the first Special Forces arrival in November 1955 to the last helicopter out in March 1975 – inspired our nation's long overdue official 50th Anniversary Commemoration of the Vietnam War and the proud, brave Americans who served the Cause of Freedom in those years.
