response was so overwhelming that I decided to open Table Art & Event Designs, a decor company for corporate and social gatherings. The event planners at Atlantis Marine World in Riverhead, where we had my son's reception, saw my work and they were impressed with my unusual creations. They soon placed me on their recommended vendor list. Since then, I have created pieces for events held at venues such as Oheka Castle, the New York Hall of Science and various other venues throughout New York. . . . My love for flowers has always been a constant inspiration throughout my life. No matter what medium I work in, flowers need to be included in my designs. I also find inspiration from other creative people. I appreciate how artists are able to make a living by pursuing their chosen craft.
