

PATRICIA F. ROBINSON MUSIC STUDIO
PRESENTS

SUMMER CONCERT

Sponsored by Mu-Te-Or Brooklyn Branch of the National Association of Negro Musicians Inc.

June 22, 2025
4:00pm

St. Philip's Episcopal Church

Dear Parents, Relatives, Supporters and Friends:

Welcome to our 95th annual recital. We appreciate your support and look forward to many years and generations to come for your continued support allowing the school to exist for many years going forward.

PATRICIA F. ROBINSON
music studio

I would like to thank everyone especially my children, the parents, Alex and Curtlyn who are not only the best teachers anyone could have but the care and attention they gave me and the students could not be matched and of course Mu-Te-or, our sponsor (Brooklyn branch of the National Association of Music Inc) and BMTG (Brooklyn Music Teachers Guild) whom I have dedicated many years of service to and my faithful helpers at the door. I appreciate all of you.

Please note as I recover over the summer the school will go on year round as usual. I will also be teaching virtually Tuesdays and Thursdays as usual.

Enjoy the concert. Please be respectful and don't get up while the student is performing. No talking during performances and no eating in the Sanctuary.

Lovingly musically yours,
Mrs. Robinson

Patricia F. Robinson originally began teaching with her mother L. Elsie Graham who founded the Stuyvesant School of Music in 1930, Mrs. Robinson began teaching as a young girl, teaching after school and on Saturdays. Her teaching ability was noted from the very beginning.

Her students developed and achieved numerous awards, scholarships, competitions (including the famous International Apollo Kids Competition) and have been accepted in the most prestigious colleges such as Julliard, conservatories and many universities as well as movies and television commercials.

Students continue to achieve through the successes of the highly skilled staff. All the teachers have many years of experience in their area of expertise. The love and personal attention that Mrs. L. Elsie Graham was known for still lives on for four generations of musicians.

Mrs. Robinson is a past President of the MuTeOr, the Brooklyn Branch of the National Association of Negro Musicians.

Alex MacKinnon is a drummer/composer from Piermont, NY now based in Brooklyn. He has performed at venues such as Carnegie Hall, National Sawdust, Webster Hall, and the 92nd Street Y. He has worked consistently as a dance accompanist for 15 years playing classes of all styles. He has composed music for choreographers including Kayla Farrish, Giada Matteini, Betsy Coker, Selina Chau, and more. As a drummer he has worked with groups such as Layerhythm, That Shuffle, Clay Haynes, The Fine Machines, and Randy Johnston. You can find his original music at Alexmakesmusic.bandcamp.com and thewhistleblowers.bandcamp.com as well as on all streaming services.

Curtlyn Ifill started her music lessons at Patricia F. Robinson Music Studio at 9 years old. She has been a teacher at the Patricia F. Robinson Music Studio for 8 years where she teaches piano and voice lessons. She is 18 years old and is currently pursuing a degree in Vocal performance at the Aaron Coplan

School of Music studying under Sherry Overholt. She enjoys singing many genres including Opera, Negro Spirituals, Jazz, and pop.

Kathleen Grosvenor is the president of the Musicians Teachers and Organists, Inc. (MuTeOr) branch of the National Association of Negro Musicians Inc. She has sung in choirs and as a soprano soloist since she was a young girl. She shared her love for music with her children, having them study music at the Stuyvesant Heights music school and later at the Patricia F Robinson Music Studio. It was there that she became associated with NANM through MuTeOr. During her tenure MuTeOr has, established the Winifred J Thompson Youth piano/voice Competition, became a 501c3, received several community grants and has had regional scholarship winners in 3 of the last 4 competitions.

MuTeOr is the only branch in the metropolitan area that has members in the youth, collegiate and adult divisions. Today MuTeOr,inc. proudly sponsors the annual Patricia F. Robinson Music Studio's student recital.
