President's Message

April showers bring May flowers ...

While staring out the window and seeing the drizzling rain of April, let's instead look ahead to the May flowers the rain will bring. Spring brings new beginnings and as you read your newsletter you will see new beginnings for the Club. The slate of officers for 2022-2024 is announced (see p. 3) and once they are voted on and installed, they will be bringing new ideas to blossom.

Spring will allow us to once again meet outdoors. Those long winter months of Zoom meetings will be behind us and we can renew our friendships and activities in person. Interesting events are in the planning stages.

We are looking forward to the Spring Conference April 22-24 in Akron, OH. SIGP will be well represented. SIGP members Karrie Blankenship and Laurie Jost will present a workshop with the Insights on Human Trafficking documentary and our Live Your Dream winner, Nealmetria Loper, will receive a regional Live Your Dream award. We are proud of the accomplishments of these dedicated women.

Here's to hoping our May flowers blossom into new beginnings....

Mother's Day Bags – Positive Images Project

Once again, we will honor the women of Positive Images (PI) with Mother's Day gifts. PI is a nonprofit therapeutic residential and outpatient community located in Detroit, not far from where most SIGP members live. As many of you know, we give 50 women a Mother's Day gift bag every year. Some of these women have never received a Mother's Day gift before, so you can imagine what it must be like for them to know someone cares.

We have been collecting the following items all year but still need more to reach 50.

- Jewelry (earrings, bracelets, necklaces)
- Decorative 4 X 6 or 5 X 7 gift boxes—Birchbox, or stationery boxes preferred
- Scarves—spring, summer, no winter wear
- Cosmetic or small travel bags
- Nail Polish
- Emery Boards
- Mugs
- Toothbrushes—new
- Dental floss
- "O" Oprah Magazines

Soroptimist Grosse Pointe is happy to announce ... Another AMAZING Awards Banquet

On Wednesday, March 9, 2022, Soroptimist International of Grosse Pointe (SIGP) held its Annual Awards Ceremony at the Assumption Greek Cultural Center in St. Clair Shores, MI. Forty people attended the event, which included 27 SIGP members, 5 awardees, one award judge and other guests including Soroptimist District III Director, Kellie Klingel.

SIGP co-presidents Marya Rosenthal and Ellen Chapin moderated the evening. Each awardee received a gift bag that included an award check, yellow rose, award certificate and a clever "survival kit."

The Live Your Dream (LYD) award is the signature award of Soroptimist International of the Americas. It honors women who are going to school to improve employment opportunities, are the head of household, enrolled in a training or educational program and have financial need.

The first place Live Your Dream (LYD) winner, Nealmetria Loper, was awarded $3,000. The second-place LYD winner, Delia Mustin, $2,000. The third-place award winner, Denise Sargent, $1,000, and this year we gave a fourth-place award of $1,000 to Danyelle Easley.

District III Director, Kellie Klingel announced that our first-place winner, Nealmetria Loper, was the district winner and will be given an additional monetary amount at the Regional Spring Conference.

The Virginia Wagner Award honors a woman who is enrolled in a university degree program and has financial need. SIGP presented the Virginia Wagner Educational Award of $3,000 to Lavina Hutchinson.

The Soroptimist Ruby Award is given to women who have made a positive difference in the lives of other women and girls. This year SIGP gave two Ruby Awards. Kimberly Williams, executive director of the Dominican Literacy Center, was awarded a $500 donation to be used toward educational programs. We also awarded Dr. Janice Brown, O.P., director of the Siena Literacy Center, $400 to continue her work.

This year the Continuing Education Award in the amount of $500 was given to previous LYD award winner Tonesia Nesbitt (see more on p. 8). This award is given to provide additional support and mentorship to previous LYD awardees.

Each awardee was introduced by an award chairwoman and then given an opportunity to speak. All the awardees expressed their gratitude for the monetary award and explained how the money would help them to continue in school. After hearing the struggles these women endure, SIGP members know their fundraising efforts will have a profound effect on these women's lives. — Roseanne Horne & Diana Langlois, Awards Ceremony Chairwomen

SIGP Co-presidents Ellen Chapin (L) and Marya Malkovich Rosenthal (R) were the evening's moderators.

Second Place Live Your Dream Awardee: Delia Mustin

Denise Sargent, Third Place LYD Awardee, was unable to attend. This is what she wanted to say:

"I am so grateful to Soroptimist International of Grosse Pointe for selecting me as a recipient of the Live Your Dream Award! I am truly blessed to finally be able to pursue my Bachelor's degree, and likely a Master's in Social Work! With the support of my Soroptimist 'sisters,' I am sure to succeed and live my dream! Thank you so much!"

Danyelle Easley, Fourth Place LYD Awardee, was unable to attend. This is what she wanted to say:

"I want to thank Soroptimist for selecting me as an award recipient and giving me the honor of being part of a society that wants to empower, embrace and encourage women to become the best version of themselves."

Applause for Continuing Education Awardee

Unfortunately, Tonesia Nesbitt was unable to attend the banquet since she was attending evening classes that night. She wants us to know that she is extremely grateful for the support she is being given.

She actively and tenaciously seeks out every resource that might possibly assist her. For example, when we provided our mentees with information about the Michigan Reconnect college tuition program, Tonesia immediately applied and had her tuition waived. Knowing that students may not have learned or taken advantage of the program, she spread the word and her advocacy of the program was such that she received an invitation to introduce Governor Gretchen Whitmer at a press conference to announce the program.

Those who were able to attend the banquet gave Tonesia a hearty round of applause.

— Maddy Colavito, Continuing Education Award Chair

So you think the banquet's over? Not quite yet. Two more pages!

At left, SIGP member Sara Baker, is a LYD winner at the local, district and federation levels, holds a Bachelor's degree in Special Education, and is working on a Master's degree in Educational Studies at the University of Michigan. Here she and SIGP member Diana Langlois, Mentoring for Success Chair, hug. Sara gave a stirring speech of her progression from arriving in the U.S. into a violent home life and escaping that situation to becoming a student at U-M. graduate!

After Nealmetria Loper accepted her award, fellow awardee Delia Mustin gave her a big hug. Note standing ovation in background.

Special thanks to our award judges for their time and effort

MEMBERSHIP SURVEY RESULTS

Thanks to the 45% of our members for completing the Annual Membership Survey. The results have been tabulated and will be discussed at our April Business Meeting, Wednesday, April 13. Please join us, and bring any additional ideas you may have to make our Club experience even better in the coming year.

SIDE HUSTLE MEMBERSHIP ACTIVITY

Books on the Lake is returning to our community after a two-year hiatus. Remember way back when Grosse Pointe Public Library (GPPL) librarian Kathleen Gallagher visited SIGP at one of our outdoor meetings? She had kindly filled us in on the many services the library provides its residents. Books on the Lake is another of the fun events offered by GPPL. While many of you participate in book clubs or may already have plans to attend this event at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, it would be fun to put together a SIGP table.

If you are interested in forming an SIGP table, please contact me by April 7, when the tickets go on sale. Cost is $35 per person.

“Free Money” fundraising!

Returnable bottles & cans RETURN!

You’d think Roseanne Horne, Nancy Solak, Mary Ellen Burke and Carol Hofer, among others, would be tired of returning bottles and cans. But no! It’s more like they’ve got the process down. It goes much more quickly with practice!

Returnables (NOT water or wine bottles), but bottles and cans that had something fizzy in them such as cola, beer and flavored carbonated water garner money.

Since COVID began, our club has returned and collected close to $9,000!

Thank you to everyone who has donated cans/bottles or donated the money they collected from returning their own.

Two drop-off locations:

Roseanne Horne, 1247 Elford in Grosse Pointe Woods and Nancy Solak, 458 Cloverly Road, in Grosse Pointe Farms

Tell your families and friends: Leave ‘em on their front porch, their back porch, by their garage, in their backyard, they don’t care. Members will return ‘em and you’ll be helping empower women and girls! THANK YOU!

SIDE HUSTLES: Events not sponsored by SIGP but related to the Soroptimist mission (reprinted from last month in case you didn't have time to read)

The Michigan State Medical Society's Documentary Men Who Buy Sex-Everybody Pays

Sex buyers are the key to tackling the human trafficking epidemic. This documentary sheds light on the "men who buy sex" by examining the demand side of human trafficking. If you haven't seen it yet, here is the link.

<https://www.grossepointesoroptimist.net/human-trafficking-awareness.html>

Several SIGP members attended the premiere of Men Who Buy Sex-Everybody Pays at the Emagine Theater in Royal Oak on February 23, which was presented by the Wayne County Medical Society Foundation.

Laurie Jost, the foundation's Human Trafficking Awareness Committee Chair and a Grosse Pointe Soroptimist moderated the Q&A session after the preview. The panel of 12 men and women included survivors, law enforcement, medical professionals, and advocates for human trafficking victims and survivors.

Laurie Jost is the executive producer alongside Joseph M. Beals, MD who is the Wayne County Medical Society Foundation chairman. Please take the time to watch the documentary and share it.

Kidney Walk at the Detroit Zoo

Many, many thanks to those of you who read my recent email to all our members and have already registered to participate in the National Kidney Foundation in Michigan's (NKFM) "Kidney Walk at the Detroit Zoo," on May 15, 2022. Thanks, too, to those who volunteered to help at the event. I hope to see many of my fellow Soroptimists there as well.

This is a major fundraiser for the NKFM, so I hope many of you will join with me in supporting such a worthy organization. Jeritha Brown, our Live Your Dream recipient from last year, has struggled so hard to continue her education even as she remains optimistic that she will receive a donor kidney.

As promised in my last email about the National Kidney Foundation in Michigan "Kidney Walk at the Detroit Zoo," here are links to Jeritha's story and to the "Kidney Walk at the Detroit Zoo."
