MALE POWER-PUFF CHEERLEADERS

STUDENT AGREEMENT & PERMISSION FORM

The annual Powder-puff game between junior and senior girls is one of the activities associated with Homecoming and is considered a school activity, along with the male cheerleader that will perform. Therefore, the Apopka High School code of conduct applies to this game as well as to all school-based activities. Students must have a 2.0 to participate. No Exceptions!

I, (print your name) _____, understand that by signing up to be a male cheerleader I will abide by the AHS code of conduct and attached rules, especially those that involve performing and how to wear the provided uniform. The performance must be family friendly because of the crowd. Failure to follow these rules at school the day of and during the game will result in immediate dismissal from the squad by Mr. Peters or Mr. Mellon, followed by disciplinary action from the appropriate administrator.

Student Signature _____

I hereby give my consent for my son to participate in this approved activity. It is my clear understanding that participation in any activity creates risks normally associated with such activities and that the risks increases. I further give my permission for appropriate school staff to render emergency treatment or authorize medical treatment by a hospital and/or doctors associated with an injury and agree not to hold the school board and its employees responsible in the administration of such emergency assistance.
