B. Composition

Lumberjack shall be composed of the Wisconsin counties of Florence, Forest, Langlade, Lincoln, Marinette, Menominee, Oconto, Oneida, Shawano and Vilas; and tribal groups as authorized by a two thirds majority vote of the Board of Directors present at a given meeting, and shall hereinafter be referred to as Sponsors.

C. Purpose

Lumberjack is an independent, non-profit, non-partisan corporation having as its primary concern issues related to land management, energy, land conservation, water management and community development.

ARTICLE II OBJECTIVES

- A. To develop and implement a resource conservation and development Area Plan for Florence, Forest, Langlade, Lincoln, Marinette, Menominee, Oconto, Oneida, Shawano and Vilas counties in an effort to conserve, develop and utilize these resources and improve the general economic conditions.
- B. To cooperate, assist and choose to endorse or reject the carrying out of local and regional development plans of other organizations and agencies.
- C. To create a general awareness on the part of all people of the urgency and need for orderly development, conservation and utilization of resources.
- D. To secure the required technical, financial, educational and other services required to develop and implement an approved annual Plan of Work.

ARTICLE III SPONSORS

- A. Each sponsor shall designate one member to serve on the Council and an alternate to serve in the board member's absence.
- B. Each sponsor shall be responsible for the reimbursement of expenses of their member, alternate or delegates attending full council meetings of Lumberjack. Reimbursement of expenses for council members and/or alternates to attend all other approved Lumberjack meetings is the responsibility of the Council.
- C. Each sponsor is expected to contribute equally to the operating funds needed by Lumberjack on a voluntary basis since legal assessments cannot be made.
- D. Each sponsor shall review project proposals submitted to them and then forward to the appropriate council committee to recommend approval or rejection to the Council.

INUREMENT OF INCOME

No part of the net earnings of the Council shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons except that the Council shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered.

DISSOLUTION CLAUSE

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Council shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of the organization, dispose of all the assets of the organization to organizations established and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV COUNCIL

- A. Shall manage and control the business and property of Lumberjack.
- B. Shall consist of one board member or alternate selected from the membership of each of the ten Land Conservation Committees (LCCs) and council authorized tribal groups.

In addition, the Council shall approve up to seven (7) at-large representatives to serve as Council members with full voting privileges. At-large members will be selected according to the At-Large Member Policy.

Terms: County Council Member terms are two years to coincide with most County Board elections. At Large member terms are two years and elected in opposite years from County Council Members.

- C. Shall be empowered to conduct and supervise the current activities of Lumberjack and have control over the use and disposition of its funds and property, including the current preparation and adoption of a budget, approval of expense accounts and other disbursements.
- D. Shall review all project proposals brought before the Council. The approval, rejection or table vote can be granted to the Executive Committee by a majority vote of the Full Council. Determine the order and amount of assistance which Lumberjack can provide for carrying out project proposals, establish priorities, develop and keep current a Plan of Work each year.
- E. Shall form an Executive Committee by electing from their membership a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer. In addition, the president, upon leaving the office of president, shall automatically become the immediate past president and be a voting member of the Executive Committee. These officers shall be elected at an organizational meeting to be held before the 30th day of May following the organizational meeting of the County Board of Supervisors held the 3rd Tuesday of April on even numbered years. If all five (5) Executive Committee members are not reappointed after the spring election, the Council Executive Director (or current administrative staff) will meet with three (3) directors to plan the annual organizational meeting. Reimbursement for these directors will be the same as for the Executive.

1. Only members/directors of paid-up sponsors or elected At-Large members may hold office.
2. No individual may serve more than six consecutive years (three terms) in the same position on the Executive Committee without taking one term off. The term of immediate past president shall be two years or until there is a new past president.
3. The president shall preside at all meetings of the Council. The president is authorized to delegate to one or more officers the performance of any of the functions or responsibilities of the office; and to revoke any such delegation of responsibilities at any time. The president has authority to approve expenses and sign checks written by the organization.
4. The vice president shall act for the president in the president's absence. The vice president has authority to approve expenses and sign checks written by the organization.
5. The past president shall serve as an advisor to the Executive Committee and the entire Council.
6. The secretary shall record all of the transactions at Council meetings. Policy statements and action items shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The secretary is authorized to delegate to another Council member or Council employee the performance of any of the functions or responsibilities of the office; and to revoke any such delegation of responsibilities at any time.

The secretary shall notify members of meetings; distribute copies of the minutes of all meetings to each member of the Council and perform all other duties incumbent upon this office.

7. The treasurer shall review all dues and other monies deposited into the Council's account at a bank approved by the Council. The treasurer has authority to approve expenses and sign checks written by the organization.

The treasurer shall provide a statement of the financial condition of the Council and of all other transactions of this office at full council meetings, and when requested by the president and/or board of directors. The treasurer shall provide the necessary records for, and assist with any audit; and perform all other duties incumbent upon this office.

8. Vacancies among the officers within the term shall be filled by appointment of the president with majority approval of the remaining members of the council.

F. Shall organize needed committees, indicate objectives, issue instructions and appoint members thereon including an Executive Committee consisting of the president, vice president, past president, secretary and treasurer. The Council may authorize this Executive Committee to carry out selected duties delegated to them.

G. In General:

4. Prepare the annual Plan of Work.

LEGISLATIVE OR POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

No substantial part of the activities of the Council shall be carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The Council shall not participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

OPERATIONAL LIMITATIONS

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

J. Shall arrange for an annual or special audit of Lumberjack's financial affairs by at least two members of the Council who are not members of the Executive Committee. This audit will be conducted only when an independent audit is not required or approved.

K. Employ and determine the rate of compensation for employees of Lumberjack.

L. Appoint a member/director or members/directors to represent Lumberjack at meetings, hearings, etc. that is in the interest of Lumberjack. Such meetings should be brought to the Council Executive Director's (or current administrative staff's) attention to be put on the council meeting agenda.

Council will pay a stipend, mileage and other related expenses to the appointed person. This person must be a Lumberjack council member or the Council Executive Director (or current administrative staff).

M. MEETINGS

1. Meetings will be called by the president or at the request of four members of the Council. Locations of meetings will be determined by the president or meeting chairperson.
2. All meetings shall have at least five days advance notification.
3. Minutes of all meetings will be distributed to each member of the Council who will keep their local sponsor informed of Lumberjack activities.
4. A quorum consists of a majority of elected members (elected members includes At-Large directors and directors elected from paid-up sponsor counties.)
5. Only council directors from paid-up sponsors and At-Large council directors will be allowed to make motions and vote. All votes will be by one roll-call or voice vote per county/At-Large member. If a council member is unable to attend a meeting, his/her designated alternate will assume the role of council member. Meeting participation by nonmembers is permitted and encouraged.

N. RULES OF ORDER

Meetings of the sponsors, Council and Executive Committee shall be conducted according to, and governed by, Robert's Rules of Order (revised) except as otherwise provided in these bylaws.
