The Torah reading for each day of Hanukkah is taken from Numbers 6:22-8:4, which recounts the dedication of the mishkan (temporary, moveable place of worship) by the Israelites in the desert. On Shabbat during Hanukkah, we read the regular weekly portion. During the Festival of Lights, the Haftarah readings, additional selections from the Prophetic books, are Zechariah 4:1-7 and I Kings 7:40-50.

We light the Lead Candle (shamash) and then we light the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, & 7th candles from right to left and say:

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tsivanu l'hadlik ner shel Hanukkah.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who performed wonderful deeds for our ancestors in days of old at this season.

Heavenly Father, King of the Universe, we acknowledge that You are Who we need more than anyone else in this world and You gave us Your Son, the Light of the World, Who rules and reigns in our hearts. Father, we know that we will never be able to out give You, we can't thank You enough for Jesus Christ and the freedom from sin and hell that we have through believing in Him. Holy Spirit we ask that You would invade our hearts and spirits with Your sweet presence and hold us tight. Help us to walk in faith, love, and light. In Jesus name, Amen.
Hallelujah!! You reign!!
