Course Green Knoll - Blues (68.9 /126)
Weather Cloudy/Rainy 50's

It was another year of rain on World Series Day #1 but we played on this year. It certainly appeared the first group had the secret formula with 3 of them taking the top three spots. Dave Perry came away with the top honor with a Net 65 and secured the first World Series spot and with that will have no need to worry about how to get WS points this year (more to come from the World Series Commissioner). Dave shot an impressive Net 30 on the front and followed up with Net 35 on the back which included a 10 on 18. He won the front and was in the Birdie pot and won the Net Birdie pot with 13. A notable mention to Dennis Grote and Bob Babetski in Dave's foursome, finishing with Net 66's. Both shooting Net 31 on the front. Congratulations Dave, our first World Series qualifier.

Other Notables – There were 3 Johnny's – John Rutigliano 43-31, John DeSimone 47-35 and Mark Schuler 49-39. One Super Johnny, Andrew Keller 46-30 and a rare Desi, Rich Fitzgerald shot Net 68 on the front and followed it up with a Net 41 on the back. Andrew Keller won the back with Net 30 and John Rutigliano finished second with Net 31.

John Rutigliano and Dan Price defeated Ron Ceglia Jr and Rich Fitzgerald in Partner +5. The match was sealed on 17 when Dan Price chipped in from 40 yards for a birdie.

This was Charlie Connors sixth round and has completed his qualifying rounds. More to come on that.
