Message from Our "Big Cheeses"

What is with the foody element in this newsletter?

I was told to do what I want for this first time - 2nd edition of the newsletter, while we are figuring out a name. One thing I love about Windhaven is the connection to food and hospitality - hence the customary phrase, "Welcome to Windhaven, have you eaten yet?" Perpetual Stew was a name I came up with because of the historical connection and it kind of fit. I am looking at different options for changing the theme in the future based on what is decided for the name.

Set weight or muscle goal.

Specify target weight/composition.

Track food for one week.

Identify improvement areas.

Calculate daily calories.

Set macronutrient ratios.

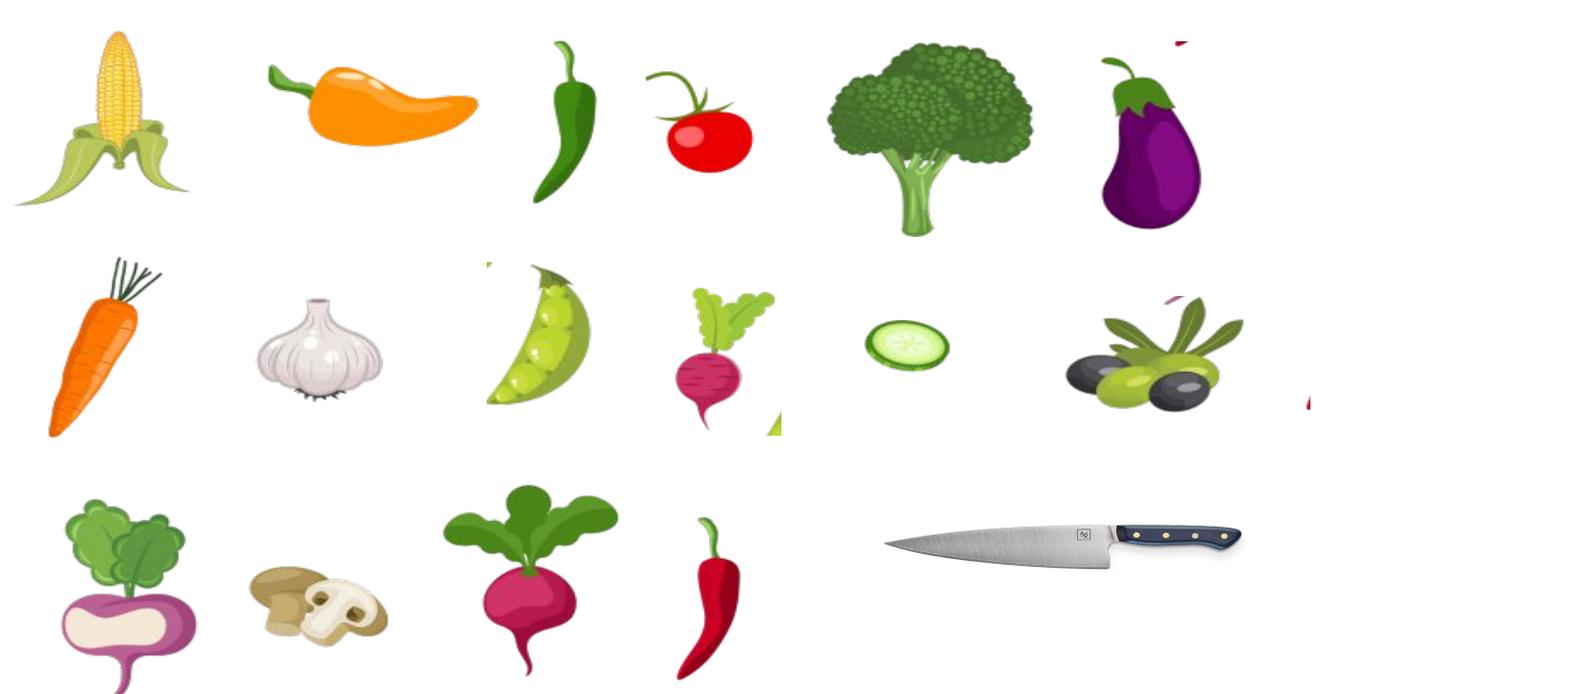

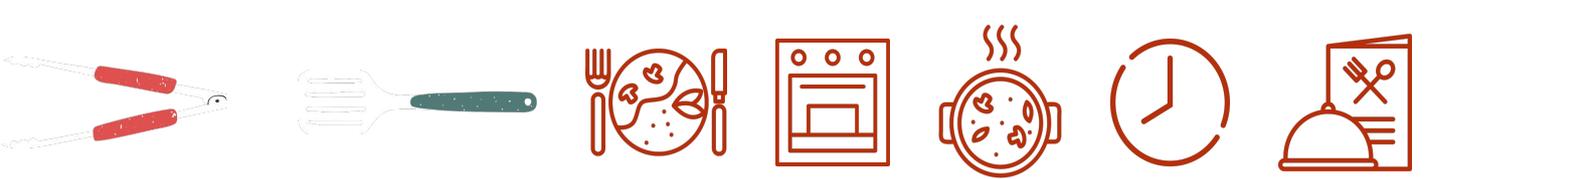

Mix food groups in meals.

Schedule regular workouts.
