

Subject: Online Test Delivery Webinars

FINRA and NASAA are now offering online delivery for select exams. There are eligibility, technical and remote environment requirements that candidates must meet in order to successfully take a qualification exam remotely. Learn more on the Schedule an Exam page.

Online appointments are initially limited in order to monitor program performance, but we anticipate increased availability in the coming weeks and the month of August. Firms and candidates are encouraged to take advantage of both in-person and remote test proctoring as we work with Prometric to increase online capacity. See the Coronavirus Impact on FINRA-Administered Exams page for complete information.
