

Diana May Crook
April 20, 1946 — July 15, 2025

Diana May Crook (Yager) was born in Wyoming on April 20, 1947 and passed away July 15, 2025 in Wyoming. Diana lived in Wyoming and Colorado. Diana worked in accounting, and then became employed by Denver Childrens before early retirement. Diana married Fred Kerns, and they had three children together. Later she found the love of her life, and married Cleo Crook and she loved his two children as her own. Diana is survived by five children and ten grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Diana was a woman of true inspiration, integrity, and compassion. She went through many trials and errors in life and continued to live to see the good in life, rather than the negative. Diana believed there was good within everyone and treated everyone fairly, and with love. Diana was the true life 'Mama Timbo'. Diana loved to be outdoors from picking up pinecones to make Christmas wreaths and camping, she enjoyed going to Deadwood, South Dakota for a little breather, and visiting her family and friends. She loved her family and friends dearly.

A Celebration of Life for Diana Crook was held at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday, July 23, 2025 at Arbuckle Lodge at 1400 S. Garner Lake Road Gillette, WY 82716. Condolences may be sent in care of Gillette Memorial Chapel 210 West 5th Street, Gillette, WY 82716. Condolences may also be expressed at www.gillettememorialchapel.com
