SUSTAINING OUR CORE PROGRAMS

A bequest ensures that The Pet Project can continue our most critical programs, such as pet retention, emergency medical care, spay/neuter services, and pet food assistance. These programs are often lifelines for low-income seniors and people on fixed incomes, disabled and terminally ill individuals who rely on our help to keep their beloved pets. By securing funding for these initiatives, your bequest ensures that generations of pets can remain with the humans who love them, avoiding unnecessary surrenders and the heartbreak of separation.

REACHING MORE PETS AND PEOPLE

A long-term bequest would allow The Pet Project to extend our reach, providing support to more pets and their owners. Our programs currently serve hundreds of clients, but the need is ever-growing. With additional funding from bequests, we can expand into more underserved areas, provide more extensive wellness services, and rescue more pets facing dire circumstances. Your legacy would allow us to scale up our operations and assist even more pets in the years to come.

INVESTING IN LONG-TERM SOLUTIONS

Beyond immediate needs, a bequest allows The Pet Project to invest in long-term strategies, such as community outreach and education, further enhancing our ability to prevent pet homelessness. By funding these initiatives, you are not just supporting pets today, but you are also contributing to a future where fewer animals end up in shelters and more families are able to keep their pets.

A LEGACY OF COMPASSION

Including The Pet Project in your estate plans is a meaningful way to ensure that your love for animals endures. It allows you to be part of a long-term solution to pet homelessness, hunger, and suffering. Your bequest is not just a financial contribution—it is a gift of hope and stability for pets and people who need them the most.

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

By including The Pet Project in your estate plans, you can ensure that your compassion for pets and their families continues for years to come. A legacy gift is a lasting tribute that provides essential care, food, and medical support to pets in need, keeping them in loving homes where they belong.

WHY LEAVE A LEGACY?

A planned gift, like a bequest, allows you to make a meaningful impact without affecting your current financial situation. It's a simple yet powerful way to ensure that vulnerable pets and their owners will always have a lifeline, no matter what challenges they face.

HOW TO LEAVE A LEGACY

There are several ways to include The Pet Project in your long-term plans:

- Bequests in Your Will: Leave a specific dollar amount, a percentage of your estate, or a particular asset to The Pet Project.

- Beneficiary Designations: Name The Pet Project as a beneficiary of your retirement plan, life insurance policy, or financial accounts.
- Gifts of Stock or Property: Donate appreciated assets or property, offering potential tax benefits for your estate.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE FOR GENERATIONS

Your legacy gift will provide The Pet Project with the resources to continue our mission, ensuring that pets remain with the people who love them, and that no one is forced to give up their best friend due to financial hardship, a disability, or a terminally ill situation.
