PROFESSIONAL SERVICES AGREEMENT

We are pleased that you have chosen Houston Center for Christian Counseling (HCCC). This form gives you some information about our professional relationship. You are encouraged to ask the therapist you selected and booked an appointment with any questions regarding their background, credentials, professional experience or philosophy.

Confidentiality Information

HCCC is concerned about confidentiality. As Christian counselors, we believe God expects us to be trustworthy and we believe it is God's will for his people to know safety and security. It is the goal of HCCC to provide an environment in which our clients may place their trust and confidence. Under both federal and state law, confidentiality means communication with your therapist and any records pertaining to your identity, evaluation, or treatment will be held in confidence. As a group practice of independent therapists, your medical record is the responsibility and property of your individual therapist, not HCCC. Where state and federal laws differ, therapists comply with the stricter standard to ensure that your right to confidentiality is respected at all times. Also, beyond the law, we know that a sense of safety and security are necessary to the process of healing in which our clients are engaged. Through holding to God's commands and by complying with federal and state laws, HCCC will maintain confidentiality to the fullest extent personally and professionally. You have a right to confidentiality. Please find attached our Confidentiality Policy and Privacy Practices. It is your copy to keep and states more fully our policies and practices and your rights therein.

Please read our Confidentiality Policy and Privacy Practices before signing this agreement.

If you believe the Confidentiality Policy and Privacy Practices document does not answer all your questions regarding confidentiality, talk with your therapist about any concerns you may still have. Your signature at the end of this document serves as your consent to use your personal health information for routine practices according to the law for treatment, payments, and health care operations. You may revoke this consent in writing at any time, except to the extent that HCCC has taken action relying on this consent.

Rights and Responsibilities

Payment Information

The following information is provided to avoid any misunderstanding or disagreement concerning your payment for professional services.

The fee for a 50-minute therapy session is $150.00. It is the same for individual, couple, or family therapy.

Payment is due at the time of service.

As a courtesy, HCCC will file your insurance claims with your signed consent. HCCC charges full fee for missed appointments and appointments that are cancelled without 24 hour notification. Each of these payment requirements are discussed below.

Insurance

1. If you have managed care or employee assistance through your employer or a private policy, HCCC will file your insurance with your consent as a courtesy. Fill out the insurance information form in its entirety and sign if you wish us to file as a courtesy.
2. Co-payments must be made at the time of service. Deductible amounts are due at time of service where applicable.
3. If you are seeing a provider that is in your managed care network (In Network), you fee will be the negotiated rate as stated in the contract between the network and your therapist.
4. If you are seeing a provider that is not in your managed care network (Out of Network), you are responsible for amounts your insurance does not pay up to $150.00 for each 50-minute therapy session.
5. If you authorize this office to file insurance by your signed consent, we will do so, but you must understand that your insurance coverage is an agreement between you and your insurer. It is your responsibility to remit payment for charges not covered by your claim and ensure your carrier remits payment. If a problem occurs with your claim, you will be required to make payment or establish a written financial payment plan with our office until your insurance problem is resolved.

Payment Agreement

1. As a courtesy to our clients, HCCC submits charges to contracted insurance plans. We are obligated to collect client responsibility amounts such as co-payment, co-insurance, deductible, and any non-covered services at the time of service. Sometimes, exact coverage cannot be determined until the insurance company receives the claim.
2. For your convenience and to simplify billing, HCCC maintains credit or debit cards securely on file for late cancellations and missed appointments without 24 hour notice and insurance claims unpaid after 60 days. If services provided are determined by your health insurance plan to be fully or partially non-covered for any reason, you agree to waive your contractual coverage and agree to be responsible for the charge. If for any reason your health insurance company does not pay our office within 60 days, we will submit the outstanding charges to the credit card on file.
3. There is a $35.00 service charge for returned insufficient fund checks. After the second insufficient deposit we will only accept cash for payments for services until the insufficient check and service charges are paid in full.
4. All sessions will incur a $3.00 administrative fee. As a courtesy, clients paying by ACH (Electronic Draft) will receive a $3.00 discount. To pay by ACH (Electronic Draft), please provide us with a voided check and fill out the ACH form available at the front desk.

Confidentiality Policy and Privacy Practices

Please retain this form for your records.

Houston Center for Christian Counseling (HCCC) is concerned about confidentiality. We believe a sense of safety and security is necessary to the process of healing in which our clients are engaged. It is the goal of HCCC to provide an environment in which our clients believe they can place their confidence and trust.

Under both federal and state law, confidentiality means communication with your HCCC therapist and any records pertaining to your identity, evaluation and treatment will be kept secure and private. Where federal and state law differs, we comply with the stricter standard to ensure that your right to confidentiality is respected at all times.

Examples of disclosure allowances under federal and state law for treatment, payment and healthcare operations are as follows:

- The therapist will disclose necessary information and notify authorities and other third parties when there is reasonable suspicion a minor child (under 18 yrs), an elder person (65 yrs and older), or otherwise dependent adult (any age) has been harmed.
- The therapist will disclose necessary information and notify authorities or other appropriate parties when the client has directly admitted serious and imminent suicidal threats.
- The therapist will disclose necessary information and notify authorities or other appropriate parties when the client has directly admitted harmful acts or threatened action that is serious, imminent and attainable against a clearly identified third person or persons.
- Therapists may be required to make disclosures to insurance and third-party payers, employee assistance programs and managed care groups concerning client's diagnosis, session dates and where required, client symptoms and treatment objectives.
- Client communication and records must be disclosed when ordered by the court.
- Exceptions to confidentiality are made in specified civil law cases such as disclosures relevant to a parent-child relationship, e.g. , in a divorce action.
- If a client files a malpractice suit or a formal complaint with their licensing board against a therapist, confidentiality is waived.

Other issues relative to confidentiality that may be applicable in specific instances follow:

- Graduate Interns receive supervision from HCCC therapists to facilitate their development and to ensure excellent care for our clients. In these instances, written or other legal authorization has been obtained from the client and client identities are protected.
- Written records of client communications are stored in a way to protect confidentiality and privacy rights. Electronically stored records are protected by password restrictions, backup systems, virus security software and firewall protection.

A federal program called Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) gives you the right to put into writing any request you believe necessary to restrict possible misuse of your protected health information. All requests will be honored except as the law specifically outlines the use of your personal health information for treatment, payment and healthcare operations.

HIPAA states once you give consent for the use of your personal information for treatment, payment and healthcare operations by signing the professional service agreement, you may revoke the consent in writing at any time, except to the extent that HCCC has taken action relying on your prior consent. If we believe we cannot honor your written request for restriction of healthcare information, we will discuss our reasons with you and if necessary, terminate our professional agreement formally in writing.

Under HIPAA, you have the right to request in writing, receive and inspect copies of confidential protected health information held in this office. HIPAA has guidelines regarding what information must be included in response to a request from a client. If the information you request is outside those guidelines, we have the right to deny your request. Requests within the guidelines will be honored; however, there is a reasonable charge for labor and copying, and reasonable time for preparation must be allowed.

Under HIPAA, you have the right to amend any of your protected health information by a written request. If your written request is outside the laws' guidelines, we have the right to deny your request to amend records.

If you believe we do not follow the stated intentions laid out in this document and/or you believe your right to confidentiality has been violated, please talk with your therapist or the Center's office manager or director.
