

Master Dowsing Program

General Preparation: Grounding, Centering and Connecting to Source

Take a few deeps and center yourself. I sometimes like to stand up and bring my arms up in front of my body and over my head while inhaling deeply. As I do that, I imagine a golden ball of energy in my heart center expanding throughout my entire body. Then as I lower my arms out to the sides, I exhale deeply and imagine this golden ball of light now being spread at arm's reach above, outwards and under my body encapsulating it in a large bubble. I repeat this a few times while saying or thinking "I AM" on the inhalation, and "That I AM" on the exhalation. This simple exercise will automatically increase your vitality and energy field, ground you, and get you back into your personal power.

If you are sitting, start with breathing energy up through your feet and legs, looping up over your head and back down into the ground. Think "ground" as do so. Repeat several times until you feel your legs tingling before proceeding.

Next, imagine your mind coming into a narrow line like a laser beam that runs up your body and spine from your feet to above your head. Think the word "center". Let go of your extraneous thoughts and concerns, worries, personal desires, fears, and agenda. Put your mind in neutral and unattached to the answers.

Next, imagine a large golden sun somewhere above your head that represents the Universal Field of Consciousness where all information is stored. Think the word "connect". Pull this energy down through your body. Repeat several times.

Options in Using the Master Dowsing Program Script

1. Dowsing while reading through the entire clearing program. Pause when the pendulum starts to move over a section, and wait for the movement to stop before proceeding to the next item. Because of its length, this is impractical. So I advise doing #2 or #3.
2. You can dowsing over each of these pages to locate the area/s that needs attention. "Is there anything specific that I specially need to address here today?" If 'yes', say "please indicate what I need to do first." And allow the pendulum pull you to the appropriate page and to the paragraph, sentence or word that you need to address. When you have done that section, ask "what is the next thing I need to address?" Repeat until there are no more to do. AND/OR
3. Set this up as a dowsing program and then activate it with a command, such as "Commence the complete Master Dowsing Program with all commands as appropriate for ___ [name] ___ (today/right now)."

I advise installing the program #3 as there will be many times when you do not have the script or the time to do any research on what is causing the energetic disturbance you feel.

But on a daily basis where you have to do both the time and access to the script, do #2.

Directions for Installing the ‘Master Dowsing Program’

NOTE:

It is intended that the entire program below once accepted by your subconscious mind, High Self, and true spiritual guidance will activate and function in its entirety anytime that you give the following short-cut verbal command: ‘Commence Master Dowsing Program’. It will function much as hitting any command on your computer with a short-cut keystroke. If you feel you need extra help beyond just issuing the shortcut command ‘Commence Master Dowsing Program,’ you can read through the entire script again while dowsing to monitor that the action is being taken.

Alternatively, you could dowse over each page to locate the specific area that needs to be addressed. I like to do this because I get a better idea of what is going on, and over time, it increases my discernment of the energies.

Take a few deeps and ground, center and connect to Source. Hold the intention that the following be installed into your unconscious mind to operate upon command anytime you choose. Holding the pendulum, repeat the following out loud:

Getting Permission:

“May I, Can I, Should I establish the Master Dowsing Program below as written to center, clear any non-beneficial energies, function at the highest possible level, and to assist me to dowse with accuracy, and which will be continually in effect until consciously changed by me speaking aloud?”

If you get a ‘yes’, then proceed.

If you get a ‘no’, then ask, “Do I need to remove, add or rewrite this before installing?” If you get a ‘yes’, “does anything need to be removed? Please indicate.” Then cross it out.

“Does anything to be rewritten? Please indicate.” Do so, and then check if it is worded correctly.

“Does anything to be added? Where?” Locate where to get an idea if you need to expand on what was already written or might be a logical extension of it. Then dowse if your idea and wording are correct.

Finally, dowse as to whether you can proceed with installing the program.

Installing the Master Dowsing Program

1. READ ALOUD with authority:

“I hereby choose to install the ‘Master Dowsing Program’ that follows and then to activate it in full as written below anytime that I give the command

‘Commence all relevant commands in the complete Master Dowsing Program as appropriate for ___ [name] ___ (today/right now).’

This program as written will assist me to center, to clear any non-beneficial energies, to function in all ways at the highest possible level, and to assist me to dowse with accuracy for my highest good and the highest good of all. It will stay in effect to assist in all my dowsing work and around-the-clock functioning unless consciously amended by me speaking aloud and it being in accordance with my highest good.

The Master Dowsing Program can also be initiated by command anytime it is deemed helpful even without the intention of dowsing at that moment. It cannot be overridden by non-beneficial energies. And repeating the command to ‘Commence Master Dowsing Program’ in no way dilutes it’s effectiveness.

The following is the Master Dowsing Program.”

2. READ THE MASTER DOWSING PROGRAM script that follows.

3. When you are done reading the program, say

“This concludes the Master Dowsing Program.

Is this program now accepted by my High Self and subconscious mind until such time as I revise it with a conscious request made by deliberately speaking aloud?”

If you get a ‘yes’, you are done.

4. Ask:

Am I now clear of all entities and discordant energies?

Am I now able to dowse with maximum accuracy?

Is there anything else I need to address today?
