RISE OF THE SYRIAN STAR

A Prophetic Double Entandre of Coming Chaos

In my Father's House, there are many mansions, if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go to prepare a place for you, I will come back to take you to be where I am that where I am you may be also. –John 14

The purpose of this study is to ascertain the possible spiritual implications of the statement made by the current Pope, Frances during his first visit to the West Bank city of Bethlehem. This was an unprecedented visit by the Pope to the Middle East in that for the first time in Papal history, the Pope first landed directly in the West Bank instead of Jerusalem. Pope Francis also is the first Pope to call the West Back the 'State of Palestine'. As the Kerry Peace initiative Peace talks between the Palestinian Authority and the State of Israel have stalled, the Pope has infused the dialog with a personal invitation to Abbas and Peres to unite and meet at the Vatican on June 8, 2014. This date happens to be on Pentecost, as observed in the western traditional calendar.

What was sticking and perhaps prophetic are the words the Pope used for this historic invitation. He stated, 'I extend a personal invitation to my House, in the Vatican to meet for prayer and discussion', etc., as the Pope would officiate the religious celebration of Pentecost observance on behalf of the Roman Catholic Church. What might seem unapparent to the average observer of languages, it would seem to be a sensible and polite gesture by the Pope to do so for the cause of peace between the Palestinians and the Jews. What is monumental in prophetic scope is the timing and the place and who gave this 'Pentecost Invitation'. The Pope is no ordinary personage as Bethlehem is no ordinary place and Pentecost is no ordinary time to have these 3 people meet. What this time and place could prophetically represent is the Vatican's quest for the spiritual authority over YHVH's Feast of Pentecost and all that it represents. In a prophetic perspective, it is an issue of who will have ultimate spiritual authority on Earth.

The office of the Pope is the person that claims to be the Vicar of Christ, which is Christ sole representative on Earth, instead of the universal Church or the Holy Spirit in the whole Body of Christ theologically. The Papacy claims sole proprietorship of all things pertaining to Jesus Christ and Christendom. Thus, the place at which the 'Invitation to his House' was made is likewise equal in possible prophetic significance in the following manner. The place was none other than the birthplace of the Jewish Messiah, the Prince of Peace foretold in Isaiah to be born out of the numerous towns called Bethlehem of ancient Israel or Judea. The West Bank is what makes up the ancient regions of Judea and Samaria. These are the lands that will be at stake if a division of Israel is to accommodate the State of Palestine for the majority Muslim Arabs.

A Double Entandre

This study suggests that the statement made by the Pope at that place and time has some possible prophetic meaning and implications. Specifically, as it pertains to Pentecost, it has definite spiritual overtones and of how it mocks the event of what took place on Pentecost and what that event represented since the 1st century in the Upper Room. The issue is about all spiritual authority given to the true Church of Jesus, not Israel or Rome. Pentecost was about a Risen Christ giving His Bride the office to represent King Jesus' Royal decree, will and purpose and Great Commission to all the nations of the world. This very same Spiritual Authority would last until the end of the Age and precisely end at the point of the Resurrection and Rapture of the Bride by the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ.

Thus this study strongly suggests that the statement by the Pope is analogous to a rehearsal of the Father inviting His Church to His House, on a Hill on Mt. Zion in Glory as it will be the same for the Vatican to have another 'father', Papa invite his subjects at Pentecost. It is a double entandre of possible Biblical proportions without reading too much into it. The issue also is overshadowed by the Papal contention to cease spiritual control and authority over the Upper Room in Jerusalem which also contains the area of King David's Tomb allegedly. Why is this significant? The tomb of the King is a monumental symbol of the Political Authority that King David represents to the Jewish nation. Having these two aspects of authority, both the spiritual and political in one location would give the Pope, the Vatican the legitimacy that it is presently and actively seeking perhaps in anticipation of such an event that is soon to take place.

Once the absence of the True Church has been removed from the Earth, basically the Vatican will seek to fill in this spiritual and political vacuum that the Bible foretells will take place after the Rapture. The following is a prophetic comparison of the Pope's invitation statement. If by accident, coincidence or design, the timing of the visit of Abbas and Peres on Pentecost at the House of the Father, the 'Papa' or Pope in the Vatican on a hill is strikingly unique and parallels the Biblical account of the events from Passover to Pentecost of Jesus Christ's last days on Earth before His crucifixion, death, burial, resurrection and ascension.

Prophetic Implications

To reiterate, the Vatican is attempting to usurp the Spiritual Authority as well as the Political Authority over Jerusalem, Judea, and the uttermost parts of the world. It is evident that this new Pope is flexing his Papal authority over the Middle East and Jerusalem that will play a vital role in the conclusion of the Church Age. In effect the Papacy is now actively preparing for what the Bible prophetically calls the coming False Prophet as some interpret the End of Days scenarios.

This mandate from Hell will be to seek to legitimize his spiritual authority over Jerusalem, Judea, and the uttermost parts of the world as a mockery of Jesus' Great Commission to the True Church. This Papal spiritual authority will aid in the worship of the Beast, the coming political AntiChrist that will ultimately lead the whole world to worship the Dragon, aka Lucifer; this is the plan as layout in the book of Daniel and Revelation of the Bible after the Church has been 'invited' in, perhaps even at a Pentecost Feast day.

As it pertains to the possible prophetic overtones to Pentecost, the Bible account states that Christ directed His Disciples to unite and pray in that precise location of the Upper Room in Jerusalem. It was at this precise place and time as well at the bequest of the Father; Jesus to invite His Disciples on Pentecost to bestow ALL Spiritual Authority to the True Church on Earth. This theologically would be called the Body of Christ through which by the enabling inner power of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit Jesus' work would continue until the Great Commission of the Church would be completed someday, perhaps even at a Pentecost Feast.

Will the meeting amongst the Pope, Abbas and Peres on Pentecost be also a time of transference that will change the spiritual dynamic and political authority on Earth from that time forward? In essence this Pentecost Invitation is nothing more than a mockery of YHVH's Pentecost and what it represents spiritually. This study is not insinuating that the Rapture will take place during this particular time, but it would be a pleasant occurrence and long awaited one.

Why this date of June 8, 2014 is also unique is that it echoes the unification of Jerusalem in 1967 by Israel during the Six Day War. If the Jubilee Year was in fact 1966, then it is the 49th Year since the Jubilee year of 1966. This study is speculating that perhaps then, this Pentecost Summit meeting is in preparation for the coming division of Jerusalem and a reversal of the 1967 borderlines to accommodate East Jerusalem as the capital of the new Palestinian State.

- 1. 1966-2014 = 49th Year*
- 2. Eve of 49th year in 2015*
- 3. Yom Kippur 2015 = Year of Jubilee proclaimed*
- 4. Year 2015/2016 = Jewish year count of 5776*

The Spiritual Upper Room

The parallels of the Pope's Pentecost Invitation are striking in terms of the symbolism implied in many aspects. In one such aspect, the Pope implied that he has a 'House' in the Vatican. What the Vatican has always known that if it is to be the sole Spiritual Authority on Earth, the 'House' has to be procured in Jerusalem's Temple Mount where the True House of YHVH once stood and perhaps is soon to be rebuilt. Furthermore, not only is the Vatican on a hill in Rome as alluding to the Upper Room but in recent months, the Vatican has had an issue of acquiring the spiritual rights of the Upper Room that encompasses King David's Tomb in Jerusalem. Why now? Why this place and time? To reiterate, the issue is over the spiritual authority of the whole Earth. It is a prophetic timing perhaps that at this time, the Papacy is immersing over the Middle East as the true Christian witness is being eradicated and decimated by the Muslim onslaught. Perhaps it is sensing prophetically that soon it will have the opportunity to step into the spiritual gap that will ensue after the Rapture of the True Church of Christ.

In this case of the Papacy wanting sole spiritual authority over the Upper Room in Jerusalem the issue came to a head that even Prime Minister Netanyahu asked the supreme Sephardic Rabbi to allow the Papacy to assume spiritual authority over the Upper Room and David's Tomb. Why? It is because of what the Upper Room and the tome represents and what transpired there. It was a high place in the city of Jerusalem. The Upper Room was a sign of power and place of the royals. In ancient times, the poor and lowly, as those of today that live in such levels of cities are easily overrun and indefensible in times of war. Moreover spiritually, it was at the Upper Room that all Spiritual Authority from the Celestial Father was bestowed through GOD the SON on Pentecost as Christ promised to send the Comforter, the Holy Spirit to seal this authority. History can attest to the issue that there is the contention between the False Church and the True Church over this Spiritual Authority on Earth.

The Roman Catholic Church throughout the centuries has martyred more Followers of Christ for this Spiritual Authority through their Inquisition that is still on the books and ready to be re-implemented. The Bible speaks of a parlous time to come upon the world in which those that will not give spiritual allegiance to the False Prophet or political allegiance to the AntiChrist will be beheaded; echoes of the coming world Inquisitor during the Tribulation, Muslim style. Presently, it is the True Church of Christ Jesus, the Bride of Christ that was given all Spiritual Authority on Pentecost to carry out the Great Commission. It does so in the Royal power of the Prince of Peace to be exercised over all dominions, nations, and powers while on Earth and until the Rapture.

The False Church perhaps is sensing that the Church Age is about to close, and the True Church is to be removed. As an anxious tenant wanting to move in due to a vacating, the False Church is eager to claim that very spot from where the true Spiritual Authority was pronounced and given. Perhaps it will be at a coming Pentecost Feast time and place when the True Church will be removed, Rapture in so much as the false church will lay claim to that place in an attempt to legitimize its spiritual authority and political power over the entire world after the Rapture. This is the issue over the Upper Room in Jerusalem by the Papacy.

A Mockery of Pentecost

As stated before, the timing and symbolism of when and where the Papacy, the Palestinians and Jews will meet on June 8, 2014 is prophetic. This will occur on the very celebration of Pentecost in the western tradition. It will be exactly 1 year and 20 days from the prior Pentecost of 2013. These 120 coefficients is perhaps a hidden code to some measure reminiscent of the 120 that were gathered at that first Pentecost to receive all Spiritual Authority and power of the resurrected Jesus Christ that triumphed over Sin, Death and Lucifer.

What is also very peculiar about the Pentecost of 2014 is that it not only falls precisely after 1 year and 20 days or a 120 fractal, but it occurs after a sequence of 3 prior Pentecosts (2011, 2012, 2013) in a successive row having occurred in-between a solar and lunar eclipse. This has not happened for hundreds of years in the past nor future according to NASA data. This phenomenon in itself is amazing to consider and its possible prophetic significance.

This study is not to insinuate that the event of June 8, 2014 is to coincide with the Rapture or of the time of the promised celestial 'Pentecost Invitations' to go into the Father's House but it is a striking prophetic allegory. The Papal Pentecost Invitation nonetheless has echoes of how at Passover the LORD promised His Disciples in the very Upper Room of Jerusalem to invite this Bride, His Disciples to His Father's House. Jesus elaborated that upon His call or 'invitation', He would usher them in to the Mansions, at the time of the Blessed Hope.

Thus, the Pope's Pentecost Invitation echoes a type of how the Heavenly Father invited the Disciples to His House. The invitation of the Father is to His Church to enter into His Heavenly Tabernacle, to unite in His Inner Chamber for prayer and fellowship. It is the Heavenly Upper Room, on Mt. Zion. This is foretold to occur at the point of the Resurrection and Rapture of the Church which composed of 2 members as one, the Jew and the Gentile fused as the New Man in Christ, the New creation.

There is the age-old debate of whether the Resurrection and Rapture will be on Pentecost or Rosh HaShana if the Blessed Hope is to occur at a Moedim or Appointed at all. It will be a time of YHVH's choosing, as it could occur on one of the 7 Feasts of the LORD. The Bible does give enough hidden clues and divine patterns as it pertains to the Rapture type in that it will be connection to a type of harvest. The issue is whether it is the harvest of the Barley or the First Fruits of Wheat at Pentecost that are taken into the House of the LORD. In the 2nd option it is during Pentecost that the 2 loaves with leaven are waived before the LORD by the High Priest.

This is of course of the picture of the Church's High Priest, Jesus waiving the Jew and Gentile in sin but having atoned for by the very own blood of the High Priest. Or the timing could correspond to the end of the summer when the harvest of the wheat is gathered that corresponds to Rosh HaShana. Again, only on terms of spiritual symbolism, it is interesting that the Pope will taking into his house, the Vatican and be presenting 2 loaves; Abbas and Peres before his Lord as the High Priest of Rome.

The Successor of Peter

Is the Pope the successor to the Apostle Peter? No. There is no Biblical evidence that the Apostle Peter was ever in Rome. It is in fact the case that it was the Apostle Paul that was in Rome and started the church there. This account is recorded in the book of Acts wherein an understanding was reached between the 2 Giant Apostles in terms of Spiritual Authority as it related to the Great Commission. The Apostle Paul would be the Apostle to the Jews and headed west while the Apostle Peter was going to be the Apostle to the Jews and headed east. Thus, in one of the Epistles that Peter writes, he even references and greets those in Babylon that he had per chance at one time either started a church there, ministered or visited on occasion.

Apostle means the messenger or sent one, as in angel too. In plain definition, Catholicism means 'universal' as implying the whole. This connotation when applied to the Body of Christ can infer to the totality of Christendom with all its facets and flavors of the spectrum, true and apostate. The adjective word, 'Roman' is a peculiar inference to having this corporate body be influenced, sanctioned, and ruled by the political office of the Caesar. The Roman Caesar was both Dictator and Papa. He was both the head of all political authority but also all spiritual authority of the empire.

This office became eclipsed by the bishop of Rome that during the time of the Church Age of Pergamum, the church in a spiritual sense merged with the Roman state or the state merged with the Church as the Roman Empire crumpled from within. Realizing this inevitable misfortune, the office of Caesar abdicated and sought to rule and reign through its spiritual office of the Papacy. Thus, in essence, the Pope, el Papa, the 'Father' is the defacto political Caesar of the Roman Empire that to this day is alive and well. It is still part of what makes up Nebuchadnezzar's stature that the Prophet Daniel interpreted to mean that such world empires and kingdoms would be in place until the 2nd Coming of the Stone that will come from Heaven to smash such world empires.

Precisely this last Kingdom will morph out of the 2 legs that have constituted the Western and Eastern Roman Empires throughout history. Both have lasted more than the other world kingdoms and extend into a 10-toe confederation that in turn will last but a short while in comparison to the rest of the empires. In one sense, this represented statue of world empires is also a prophetic clock of a time piece that reveals when Messiah is to come the 2nd time. It will be during the confederation of the 10-toe world empire. If the statue of Nebuchadnezzar is exacting to match the proportions of the human body, then mathematically the delineations of each kingdom corresponding to a particular section of the body can be determined as coefficient of years.

Now whether the morphing of the eastern and western branches of the Kingdom of Rome become the 10 Toe confederation that will rule the last rendition of the New World Order remains to be seen. Some speculate that it will be a 10 regional and geographical division of the world, perhaps. Other speculates more of the traditional notion over the years that it will specifically be centered on the geographical location of the actual Roman Empire that included Europe and North Africa.

The Vatican

Still others in recent years have asserted that it is this precise delineation of a northern and southern flank that will constitute at some point in time a merging of the Catholic and Islamic faiths in that in some way and how the Pope will be instrumental in winning the hearts and minds of the Muslims to have a Chrislam form of world relation during the Tribulation period in so much as the Pope will be the False Prophet. This assertion goes hand in hand in how the False Prophet will condition the masses to follow the coming political AntiChrist that Israel will accept as their long-awaited Messiah. This is how some interpret end time scenarios based on Scripture.

To reiterate, the Roman rulers eclipsed their political offices with the religious office. This was not hard to do as it was common practice that since the ancient times of the Roma, as in other civilizations, the ruling monarchs were also the sole custodians and officiates of the spiritual and religious orders. This is seen in the practices of the Pharaohs right up to the Caesars, and the Czars, Kaiser which is the same word for Caesar right down to even the Queen of England as the head of the state and Religion. In essence, the Pope which means 'father' is the defacto Caesar of Rome. This office of the Papacy of the House on the Hill, called Vatican is the continuation of the Roman Kingdom that the LORD revealed to the Prophet Daniel that would be in power over the world at the 1st coming of Christ and at the 2nd coming of Christ.

The Vatican in Rome is set on a hill and was a pagan religious place of blood sacrifices even before the Romans came. It later became a Circus Maximus, circus meaning a circle or ring in which chariot races or gladiator fights occurred. It is like in a rink in the modern sense patterned after such a spectacle that in the 1st century involved blood sports and the execution of Christians as Enemies of the State for a blood sport. It was on this hill that Nero sentenced the Apostle Paul to his death by a public beheading as it is held in tradition that occurred. There is a direct geographical relationship between the layout of Rome and the Cydonia Mars Pyramid Complex of the planet Mars. Astronomically, it has been thoroughly researched that the Vatican layout is a star map or gate configuration with the complex depicting a key that incorporates the Basilica, which means 'throne', the nave, and the Castel Sant' Angelo or the Castle of the Angels still others would see as the 'stronghold of the Fallen Angel'.

Perhaps it is alluding to the stronghold of where the Fallen Angels that it is paying homage came from that are spoke about in Genesis 6 and the Book of Enoch. There is an obelisk in front of the Basilica oval that was brought from Egypt. At the top it is told that the actual piece of the Cross of Christ is fashioned but highly unlikely. In essence it is depicting a sexual union; it has nothing to do with Christ or Christianity nor the Church. The Obelisk is functioning as a phallus as the oval is the womb that draws from its regenerative powers of sexual energies and procreation. More astonishingly, the topographical layout of Rome with its 7 Hills and the Vatican are exactly matching the that of the Cydonian pyramid complex on Mars. Interestingly enough, the 7 Hills of Rome are at the base of the 'Field of Mars'.

In ancient time, the area adjacent the Tiber River was called Campus Martius or the Field of Mars. This in itself is a give-away of the direct association to the subsequent ley-lines of the Vatican and Foro Romano. It would have been humanly impossible for those of 'primitive' Romans to have this celestial foreknowledge of the exact layout of Mars Pleiadian Pyramid complex in a totally different planet just by direct observation. This revelation had to have come from either visions or direct communication from those from the 'Plains of Mars' themselves. Some speculate that such ancient text of Babylonia tells of Fallen Angels posing as 'alien astronauts' coming from Mars to 'help' humanity.

The overlay of the Cydonia Mars pyramid complex over Rome strongly suggests that the major points of the ancient city are in direct proportion and angles to the ones in planet Mars. Such monuments as the Coliseum and Popolo correspond to matching points on Mars. Most impressive, the Castel Sant' Angelo corresponds to the D & M Pyramid that is in a pentagon geometry configuration. The hexagram configuration also matches certain avenues of Rome and endpoints where prominent government buildings or where ancient Roman structures once stood. The Obelisks are made of granite that have quartz or minerals. In essence they are functioning as antennas or receivers like a modern HAARP. They resonate frequency and energy, perhaps to a Star-Gate? This is why the Pantheon is round as is the Vatican quad and Popolo plaza.

The Vatican and the Papacy have nothing to do with Jesus Christ as its very geography and architecture tells of who it really is patterned after and perhaps who it is really venerating and expecting. The Vatican, at the foot of the Plains of Mars is configured to reflect the abodes of the Fallen Angels that have left their 1st Estate, those that have joined the celestial Luciferian rebellion against the Creator GOD YHVH in the Heavens and the True Church while on Earth.

The oval demarks the stations of the solstices and equinoxes as the nave is aligned to the Pleiades. This celestial pattern is also exactly configured in London and the District of Columbia. Like the Vatican, such a similar configuration and alignment is seen in the District of Columbia is to Sirius and even the ancient City of the God's Avenue of the Dead in Mexico mirrors this Vatican alignment to the Pleiades. All three have the same star map celestial key configuration, perhaps to a star gate or portal of divine power funneled through such a vortex within the spiritual realm opens up to these 'strongholds' of the Fallen Angels. These 3 powers attempt to counterweight the Spiritual Authority of the True Church of Jesus on Earth. Such false institutions have been used as the 'Gates of Hell' to assault the true economy and authority of the living Body of Christ, i.e., the Church on Earth.

A Prophetic Turnover?

It was very strategic to have chosen a Latin American to be the next Pope or 'Father' of the Roman Empire as it was due by the mere numbers and demographics in the world. Mexico and Brazil alone constitute the largest populations of Catholics in the world. As the phenomena is also true with Evangelical Christianity, it has been in the 3rd world primarily that the explosion of the Gospel has occurred as the churches in the once strongholds of Europe and America are closing down and/or become converted into Islamic mosques. To reiterate, the invitation by the Roman Pope to Abbas and Peres to unite and go into 'my House' on the hill of the Vatican for fellowship and prayer on Pentecost echoes that of the Heavenly Father inviting His True Church into His House on a Hill in Heaven, in the celestial courts of Zion.

This would make good on the Promise of GOD the SON on Passover at the Upper Room in Jerusalem of inviting His Disciples, the First Fruit of the Harvest of Pentecost as He Himself was the First Fruit of the harvest at Passover to unite, fellowship and pray perhaps at a Pentecost season. Wouldn't it be magnificent if the Rapture did actually take place during that time? What a statement that would make and affect it would have on both the Jew and Gentile as the Bride of Christ gets the Pentecostal Invitation by the Father to go into the Upper Room as it was at the 1st Pentecost; on the very birth-day of the Church that occurred in Upper Room in Jerusalem.

Why such a big deal about Pentecost and the Upper Room? When the Rapture takes place, there will be a vacuum so huge that the Vatican is positioning itself now to be the sole and ultimate Spiritual Authority on Earth thereafter. This is why there is such a contention over this very same spot on Earth of the Upper Room in Jerusalem and what Pentecost signifies. It is about the issue of who ultimately has Spiritual Authority on Earth. Such Spiritual Authority and Great Commission has not been bestowed on the Vatican that claims sole ownership and proprietor of such a title of Vicar of Christ, as in that it is 'Christ' on Earth. The Spiritual Authority has neither been given to the political nation of Israel. Astronomically the alignment at the Vatican precisely during the Pentecost celebration will see the rise of Sirius in line with HaSatan in Perseus as Mercury is dead center next to the Silver Gate.

This is not a good omen as Sirius is identified as the Queen of Heaven. She also goes by another name, ISIS. The Catholic Church venerates ISIS as co-Redeemer with Jesus. She is believed to be immaculately conceived as Christ and ascended as Jesus, basically a Christ in her own right. HaSatan is referred to as the Eye of Lucifer in the face of Medusa that is cut off by Perseus. It is perhaps a depiction of what is rising and to come and that this even is of Satan's orchestrating. In the Greek, the rising of ISIS or Sirius, the Dog Star is called the Syrian Sign, as if dogs are being unleashed. There are 2 stars associated with dogs star, Sirius the one primarily and Procyon which means 'Before the Dog' alluding to the coming of Sirius thereafter. Astronomically these 2 hounds encircle Orion that is associated with the god Murdok. Consequently this meeting to pray for 'peace' in the Middle East by the Pope, Abbas and Peres was in actuality a Luciferian summoning of the Hounds of Hell that have unleashed ISIS to slaughter Orion in-between Taurus the Bull and Sirius the Dog.

The Spiritual Struggle

This is literally to crucify Christians on crosses across the Middle East. This 'sign of ISIS' rising echoes the depiction of Jesus on the Cross of Calvary in Psalm 22. There is a clear overtone of Jesus being identified as Orion as the Church presently is being severely persecuted by the agents of Allah, aka ISIS and her army of Mohammed that is on a rampage to ethnically cleanse the Middle East of Jesus Christ's Followers. This will set the stage spiritually for the coming AntiChrist and his New Order.

'Many bulls surround me; strong bulls of Bashan encircle me. Roaring lions that tear their prey open their mouths wide against me... Dogs surround me, (Procyon and Sirius) a pack of villains encircles me; they pierce my hands and my feet.'

The emblem of the Papacy is the 2 Keys, a Silver and Gold Key in which the Vatican complex is layout out. IN essence, the Vatican/Papacy is claiming all Spiritual Authority of the Universe in-between these 2 star-gates. Mercury is the god of financial gain, of medicine as in the Caduceus and has inferences to Baphomet, the goat-god Pan. Mercury is the Messenger of the 'god' as in this case the Pope is the 'angel' or messenger to be between the Palestinians and the Jews for perhaps a coming confirmation of a Covenant of Peace that will be initiated between the two in a division of Israel land and capital Jerusalem.

As it is now by divine Royal decree, the highest Spiritual Authority of King rests and is bestowed in the True Church, the Body of Christ while on Earth. It is the true 'catholic' church as in universal that is spiritual. Ultimately all spiritual and political authority emanates from the LORD and the Holy Spirit and the Righteous King of Glory. Once the Testimony, the Lampstand of the light and salt of the True Church is removed by King, perhaps it will be the time when the Vatican will usurp the very geographic location of the Upper Room in symbolism of what it represents.

It will be a huge victory for the False Prophet as the place of Pentecost has ultimately been obtained to spiritually secure the sole and ultimate spiritual authority on Earth after the Rapture takes place. At that time the True Church of Jesus Christ will be safe at last in the Pavilions and House of the Father having responded to the invitation, to 'Come up here' to be in the presence of Glory forever more. This is the promise Jesus Christ as the Groom to His Bride during the Last Supper; that one day perhaps at a Pentecost He would call for her because the House was made ready, moreover, the Bride had made herself ready.

The Pentecostal Invitation to enter the LORD's House on His Holy Hill still stands and the door is still open to all those that will come and respond to the personal invitation of Jesus Christ to come in before He shuts the door spiritually speaking He did to the Ark of Noah. Why this is imperative is because the Bible states that a coming Wrath of GOD will be forthcoming thereafter. This Pentecostal Age of the Church that has lasted for over 1980 years is closing fairly soon if what the indicators in the world are pointing towards, perhaps even at Pentecost or sometime yet to be understood and anticipated
