San Francisco, CA – GIRL IN GOLDEN GATE PARK (USA 2020), JP Allen's powerful mystery about a woman struggling with homelessness, makes its Festival Premiere online with the San Francisco Independent Film Festival. <https://sfindie.com/>

Evicted from her San Francisco apartment and stranded in her car near Golden Gate Park, a woman makes a secret plan to defend her right to stay in the city she loves. GIRL IN GOLDEN GATE PARK is a mystery about holding on to who we are. Shot on location in San Francisco and Lake Tahoe, GIRL IN GOLDEN GATE PARK, a truly independent San Francisco film, features Bay Area actors Kim Jiang Dubaniewicz, Erin Mei-Ling Stuart and Allison Ewing, and introduces local actor Elysia Oliquiano. The film showcases exciting music by seven different female singer/songwriters.

Written and Directed by JP Allen. Cinematography by Daniel Teixeira-Gomes. Produced by Cathy Montosa. Creative Producers, Chopper Bernet and Dawn Rich. Associate Producer, Jason Wolos. 94 min. NR (not rated). Distributed independently by Coffee and Language.

Showtimes: Daily beginning February 4 through 21, ONLINE / ON DEMAND
