

RAISING AWARENESS

In Levittown, MacArthur High School's turf field was decorated to symbolize autism awareness as district lacrosse teams scrimmaged against each other during the school's third annual Autism Awareness Day. Proceeds benefitted the Hagedorn Little Village School in Seaford.