IV. Salvation— Steps Necessary to

The Good, The Bad, The Ugly

Part Three

Character

(Webster’s 1828)

- 4. The peculiar qualities, impressed by nature or habit on a person, which distinguish him from others; these constitute real character, and the qualities which he supposed to possess, constitute his estimated character, or reputation. Hence we say, a character is not formed, when the person has not acquired stable and distinctive qualities.
- 7. By way of eminence, distinguished or good qualities; those which are esteemed and respected; and those which are ascribed to a person in common estimation. We enquire whether a stranger is a man of character.

In various portions of the scriptures there is a focus on individuals that have certain characteristics that define their true “character.” This is part three of the three-part series:

The Ugly

- 2. Turpitude of mind; moral depravity; lothesomeness (Webster’s 1828).

The scriptures identify one, yes one, that personifies ugliness.

Jezebel

The scriptures do not have one thing good to say about Jezebel. (Even of Ahab, as evil as he was, when he was reproved by Elijah, the scriptures reveal, “when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly. And the word of Jehovah came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house” (1 Kgs. 21:27-29).

Jezebel was a worshipper of Baal. She was responsible for the death of Naboth (see preceding), she “cut off the prophets of Jehovah,” that is, she “slew the prophets of Jehovah” (1 Kgs. 18:4, 13), and when “Elijah came near unto all the people, and said, How long go ye limping between the two sides? if Jehovah be God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word” (1 Kgs. 18:21). Thus, Elijah said to the prophets of Baal (that numbered 450), “call ye on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of Jehovah; and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken” (1 Kgs. 18:24).

When Jehovah defeated the prophets of Baal: “all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, Jehovah, he is God; Jehovah, he is God. And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there” (1 Kgs. 18:39-40). But that was not the end of the event: “And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow about this time. And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.” (1 Kgs. 19:1-3). That is enough said about the ugliness of Jezebel, i.e., “Turpitude of mind; moral depravity” (Ibid.).

It is, however, not where Jezebel’s moral depravity ends: There was a captain of Ahab’s army that carried out Jehovah’s judgment against Ahab (1 Kgs. 21:8-24), and now it is Jezebel’s turn. “And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and attired her head, and looked out at the window. And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Is it peace, thou Zimri, thy master's murderer? And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs. And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trod her under foot. And when he was come in, he did eat and drink; and he said, See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter. And they went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. Wherefore they came back, and told him. And he said, This is the word of Jehovah, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel; and the body of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.” (2 Kgs. 9:30-37).

The influence of Jezebel reared its head in the Church in Thyatira nine hundred years after her death, i.e., Thus saith the Son of God, “But I have this against thee, that thou sufferest the woman Jezebel, who calleth herself a prophetess; and she teacheth and seduceth my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. And I gave her time that she should repent; and she willeth not to repent of her fornication. Behold, I cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of her works. And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he that searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto each one of you according to your works” (Rev. 2:20-23).

Jezebel is one name that not many parents would choose for their daughters and that, in and of itself, gives Jezebel the top billing of Ugly! ret

Psalms 15

“Jehovah, who shall sojourn in thy tabernacle? Who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, And speaketh truth in his heart; He that slandereth not with his tongue, Nor doeth evil to his friend, Nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor; In whose eyes a reprobate is despised, But who honoreth them that fear Jehovah; He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not; He that putteth not out his money to interest, Nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.”

Not a God of Confusion

What does it take to convince a man to take heed to the word of God, and reject the words of man? It has been reported that “Followers of Jesus span the globe. But the global body of more than 2 billion Christians is separated into thousands of denominations. (Live Science).

Ponder this: In 2 Peter 3:14-18 and 1 Corinthians 14:33, Peter and Paul did not preach one doctrine to one denomination and a different doctrine to another! As Paul stated, “God is not a God of confusion.” In John 16:13-15, Jesus said the Comforter (the Holy Spirit) would guide the apostles “into all the truth:” Who is he that affirms the Holy Spirit sent confusion among men? ret
