

JENSEN LEISURE

WOOD FOR A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE

Jensen Leisure Furniture is recognized throughout North America for the quality and design of our sustainable outdoor furniture products. Furniture is our passion and we are committed to providing outstanding design, quality and customer service.

For over twenty-five years, the Jensen name has been synonymous with thoughtful design, solid craftsmanship and a high standard of customer service. With an impressive range of traditional and modern designs, and styles that have stood the test of time, Jensen Leisure Furniture offers something for every home and commercial environment.

The Ipé timber used in Jensen Leisure Furniture is the finest outdoor wood available in the market today. Heirloom quality begins with timber which is FSC® 100% certified from our own well-managed forests in Eastern Bolivia (see page 8). Only the most stable heartwood portions of each log are selected from trees that have grown for over a century before they are harvested. Jensen timber is then slowly cured in kilns for up to 65 days to assure dimensional stability and a lifetime of outdoor service.

By using only FSC® certified Ipé, Jensen Leisure Furniture is working to maintain the long-term well-being of the forests, as well as the people who depend on them. The Ipé used in Jensen Leisure Furniture is certified to meet criteria of the Forest Stewardship Council (FSC®), a non-profit organization that sets international standards for responsible forestry. By sourcing materials in this manner, Jensen Leisure Furniture is helping to conserve tropical forests and enhance the standard of living in its surrounding communities.

JENSEN LEISURE FURNITURE IS HELPING TO CONSERVE DRY TROPICAL FORESTS

ENVIRONMENT

The Forest Stewardship Council (FSC®) is an independent, non-profit organization established in 1993 to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Since its inception, over 460 million acres of forest have been certified worldwide (an area larger than the state of Alaska).

Products carrying the FSC® label are independently certified to assure consumers that they come from forests that are managed to meet the social, economic and ecological needs of present and future generations.

FSC® certification gives forestry enterprises access to new markets for their wood products, and a means for providing steady employment to their workers. But even more importantly, community members become the forest's staunchest defenders when sustainable management provides an alternative to people who depend on the land.

MAINTENANCE

PRODUCT CARE

Some of the world’s strongest and most durable woods come from the Chiquitania Dry Forest of Eastern Bolivia. Because of the nature of tropical dry forests, trees grow very slowly here. Ipé is one of the most abundant timber species in these forests. It is incredibly strong and dense, with very high wear durability.

A rich chocolate-brown color when new, the sun and moisture gracefully transforms Ipé to a mature, elegant silver patina. The original color remains preserved, however, just beneath the “skin” of the weathered surface. You can choose to allow your furniture to weather naturally or preserve the original color through simple maintenance.

To preserve the original color, we recommend and supply Penofin Verde, a specialized oil finish. It contains a light transparent pigment that screens the UV light and enhances the tone and hue of the Ipé without hiding the beautiful grain patterns. It is simple to apply using a lint-free cloth, sponge, or spray bottle. In average climates, it is sufficient to recoat fully exposed furniture once a year. More frequent re-coating may be needed in regions with frequent sunshine. The Jensen Leisure website features detailed instructions on how to care for your Ipé furniture.

For additional protection from water and moisture, we recommend and make available Wood Shield. Applied to Ipé tabletops, Wood Shield will provide protection from household food stains such as wine, olive oil, grease, water spotting, etc.

It is important to note that wood is a “living” material, sensitive to the constant changes of the outdoor environment. Although Ipé is naturally stable, minute checks in the wood surface may appear if the furniture is placed in very dry or sunny environments for prolonged periods. You may rest assured that superficial checking, or grain opening, in no way will negatively affect the structural integrity or longevity of your furniture.
